H. B. Granlee Dies; Prominent Marin Realtor

Harry Bertam Granlee, prominent in real estate affairs in Marin County for nearly two decades, died last evening at his home at 14 Bryn Mawr drive, San Rafael, after four months' illness of a heart condition. He was 70 years old.

Death had been expected, said his widow, Mrs. Matie D. Blackburn Granlee.

REALTY LEADER

Granlee was a past president, vice president and director of the Marin County Real Estate Board and a former director of the California Real Estate Assn.

He figured in the news last year when he filed an affidavit charging then County Assessor George W. Hall with allowing about a million dollars of escaped taxation by failure to tax property interest (interest by firms and individuals in public lands held under lease). Hall subsequently threatened suit over the charge.

Granlee was an unsuccessful candidate in the November, 1957, election of the Marin County Board of Freeholders, his only try for public office.

VARIED CAREER

Prior to coming to Marin County, Granlee had a career which included five years with the U.S. Railroad Administration during and following World War I, in charge of investigation of New York Central, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific lines, and five years as business manager, director and secretary-treasurer of the Los Angeles Daily News.

He was born in Richmond, Mo., and spent his early manhood in Tulsa, Okla., where he was a ticket seller, then a clerk and auditor for the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad (the Frisco road) and the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad.

NEWSPAPER WORK

After his service with the Railroad Administration in Washington, he moved to Los Angeles, where he was a certified public accountant with Haskins and Sells and with Price, Waterhouse and Co. Then he served with the Los Angeles Daily News before moving to San Francisco and entering the real estate business.

Granlee was a member of San Rafael Lodge 1108, B.P.O. See GRANLEE, page 4

SP Sues To Recover Taxes Paid To Marin

Suit Asks Return Of $66,500, Says Assessment Unjust

Southern Pacific Co. today filed a suit in Marin County to recover $66,500 in taxes paid under protest. Simultaneously, the railroad company announced it would file similar suits in 50 other California counties in an effort to recover eight and one-half million dollars in taxes which the company alleges were illegally collected during the 1958-59 fiscal year.

7 CITIES NAMED

Northwestern Pacific, owned by Southern Pacific, filed the Marin suit against the County of Marin and seven cities in the county where it has paid property taxes under protest.

George L. Buland, vice president and general counsel for the railroad, contends that the following taxes were collected illegally:

County of Marin $62,007.20; Belvedere $5.84; Corte Madera $631.42; Larkspur $581.90; Mill Valley $50.46; San Anselmo $414.26; San Rafael $2,370.78, and Sausalito $468.08.

Marin is one of 51 counties in the state sued by Southern Pacific.

SP and other public utilities contend that the state Board of Equalization assesses their properties in each of the counties at 50 per cent of market value.

Nearby properties, they say, are assessed by county assessors at an average of only 23.5 per cent of market value. They seek a refund on the difference in taxes between the 23.5 per cent and the 50 per cent.

Buland, vice president and general counsel for the railroad, declared: "We can no longer delay correcting an inequity that has been common knowledge for years." He added that the alleged inequity "has been an unjust burden to our stockholders, our shippers and our employees."

CONSTITUTION CITED

"The California Constitution," said Buland, "clearly contemplates that state assessed and locally assessed property are to be assessed at the same ratio of market value."

The Southern Pacific suits come after a compromise it had offered was rejected by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. as not affording enough relief and by the State Assn. of County Boards of Supervisors as being too big a cut in tax revenues. PG&E, which had threatened to withhold some tax money until what it called inequities were corrected, temporarily relaxed its stand earlier this month, pending a study by the Legislature.

Burglar Chooses Hair Beauty Kits

It may have been a conceited burglar who some time Friday night broke into the Marin City Drug Store.

Sheriff's deputies said the store reported at 7:50 a.m. Saturday that a window next to the main door was broken.

A check revealed wave sets, shampoo and other hair beauty kits had been stolen. The value was placed at about $9.

DOORBELLS TO RING TONIGHT FOR CANCER

Today is "C-Day!"

This is the day the American Cancer Society has designated as the high point of its month-long crusade. To-night throughout Marin County, thousands of doorbells will ring as the society's Marin Branch sends forth hundreds of women volunteer workers to distribute literature on cancer control and solicit funds for cancer research.

Dr. Tom Groody, chairman of the crusade, today urged: "Guard your family with a check-up and a check and greet your volunteer worker with a smile and a check."

Mill Valleyan Critically Hurt In S.F. Crash

A Mill Valley accountant was on the critical list and in "just fair" condition at Mt. Zion Hospital in San Francisco today after his sports car skidded through a chain-link fence at Ft. Scott, Presidio of San Francisco, yesterday.

Henry F. Taylor III, 27, of 61 Corte Madera avenue, suffered a skull fracture, crushed chest and spinal injuries.

San Francisco police said Taylor's convertible skidded on the Golden Gate Bridge approach ramp off Marin boulevard. It slid sideways for 125 feet before tearing out 25 feet of the chain link fence surrounding Ft. Scott, they said. The accident happened at 2:27 a.m. yesterday.

'Mean Cow' Kills Petaluma Farmer

PETALUMA — Louis Leo Giacometti, 67-year-old dairy farmer, was found dead in his barn, apparently kicked to death by a cow.

The body was found last night by his son, Louis Frank Giacometti.

Police decided the farmer had leaned over to remove the milking machine attachment from a Holstein and was kicked in the head repeatedly.

The son said Giacometti had told him earlier yesterday that he intended to get rid of that particular cow because she had become mean.

Herter Says He'll Travel As Needed

WASHINGTON — Christian A. Herter, newly named secretary of state, said today he would be a "pretty strong team worker" but that he would travel overseas whenever he felt it necessary.

He made this comment on returning from a weekend vacation to assume control of the nation's foreign policy as successor to cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles.

Herter, whose formal nomination as secretary went to the Senate today, flew back from a brief rest at his plantation near Clarendon, S. C.

The 64-year-old New Englander strongly hinted that C. Douglas Dillon, undersecretary of state for economic affairs, would be promoted to No. 1 assistant.

Dillon, a 49-year-old former investment banker, was at the airport to greet Herter.

Herter expressed confidence that President Eisenhower's three-day delay in naming his secretary of state would not weaken his prestige in dealing with foreign diplomats.

"Oh, no," he replied when asked about this by newsmen. "The only delay was that he was waiting for the physical report which I was delighted to have made."

Herter underwent a confidential physical checkup at Johns Hopkins Hospital last Wednesday by a "neutral" physician. The purpose was to assure Eisenhower that Herter's arthritis of the hips would not interfere with his being an active foreign policy chief.

Herter told newsmen he was deeply honored by the confidence that Eisenhower and Dulles have shown him in picking him as the new secretary of state.

Until he is confirmed by the Senate, Herter said he would avoid commenting on foreign policy issues.

A trickle of complaints to its Foreign Relations Committee seemed unlikely to delay Senate confirmation of Herter.

Committee aides said they had received some verbal protests, from persons they didn't name, that Herter's physical condition would hamper his activities in the top diplomatic job. No formal objection has been filed, however.

Reaction to Eisenhower's Saturday announcement of Herter's selection showed overwhelming approval of the appointment.

Formal nomination of Herter went to the Senate today. A meeting of the Foreign Relations Committee already has been called for tomorrow.

Double Sessions Predicted Ahead In San Jose Schools

Rapidly-growing San Jose School District may face double sessions in some classes at any or all of its schools next fall, or even before the end of the current school year, Supt. Philip W. Schneider said today.

Schneider noted that the district's schools are operating at near capacity now. He said that, in general, lower grades are not too crowded, but grades four and up are quite full.

The problem faced by district administrators, he pointed out, is to forecast the grade levels of students who will be moving into the district. There are 137 homes under construction in the district, with others being started nearly every day, and a 550-unit Capehart housing project being built on Hamilton Air Force Base.

Half of the Capehart units are planned for completion by June 30, Schneider noted, with the other half due to be finished by the end of the year.

The district will shortly start construction of a 10-classroom multi use room addition to Meadow Park School on the air base, and also plans expansion of Lynwood and Loma Verde Schools.

The earliest completions of these expansions will not come until early next year, Schneider pointed out. Meanwhile, if homes now under construction are occupied, and about 275 families move into the Capehart units this summer, double sessions are a definite prospect.

Schools and classes which will require double sessions will not be known until grade levels of children of these families are ascertained, Schneider pointed out.

Injured Marinite On Mercy Flight

Officials Rally To Aid Woman

A Marin County divorcee, whose 39th birthday celebration ended tragically when she was critically burned in the county jail, was under care today in one of the nation's foremost burns treatment centers.

The Marin County medical director, a congressman, the Defense Department, the Army and the Air Force all cooperated to provide Mrs. Bernice Lucille Lind with the best treatment available, after she was burned over more than 40 per cent of her body.

A special Air Force evacuation plane flew Mrs. Lind to Brooke Army Medical Center at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., where serious burns cases from Army posts throughout the nation are sent for treatment.

DOING WELL

She arrived there in excellent condition, and was reported doing well today, said Dr. Rafael G. Duffy, county medical director.

Dr. Duffy set the bureaucratic wheels in motion to admit Mrs. Lind, a civilian with no service connection, to the Army medical center — because, he said, it has the best facilities in the nation for treating major burns cases.

The wheels turned rapidly. Last Thursday, Mrs. Lind celebrated her 39th birthday. She celebrated too alcoholically.

In mid-afternoon, two San Rafael policemen found her unconscious in a telephone booth at the Greyhound bus depot. They booked her into the county jail as a drunk.

FALLS ON HEATER

She was placed in the women's cell, which is heated by an electric heater. There, she "passed out" again — falling across the heater when she did so.

When found, she was severely injured.

Widow Sues For Mishap In Belvedere

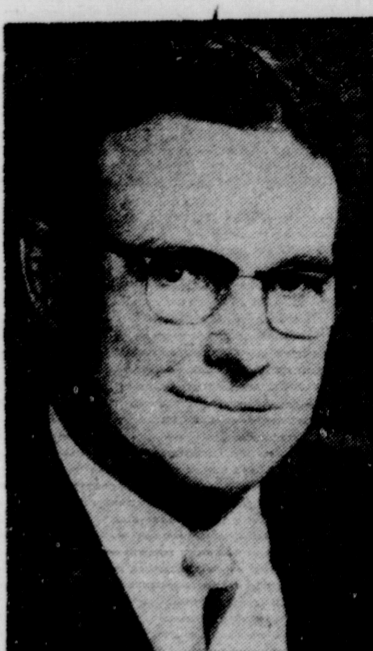

An Oakland widow is suing in Marin Superior Court for $29,000 damages for the death of her husband, who fell on a loose board at a Belvedere home and fractured his hip.

Mrs. Hazel T. Burroni filed the suit today against Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Keys, who live at 5 North Point Circle, Belvedere. The Keys have since moved to Sacramento. The mishap occurred about 5:30 p.m. last Aug. 25 as Burroni, 67, walked along the Keys' driveway to visit the Keys. According to the complaint, Burroni tripped over loose boards and was flung to the ground, suffering serious injuries. He died on Nov. 24.

Mrs. Burroni seeks $25,000 general damages and $4,304 for medical and funeral expenses.

Mill Valley Boy Critically Hurt In Smashup

A 8-year-old Mill Valley boy was in critical condition in Marin General Hospital today after suffering major injuries when his bicycle and a truck collided Saturday evening.

A hospital spokesman said Stephen L. Kopp, of 515 Browning was unconscious when he arrived at the hospital, but regained consciousness yesterday. Stephen suffered fractures of both legs, and his left arm, and head injuries.

VEHICLES COLLIDE

The bicycle and a jeep truck driven by Joe A. Martinotti of 555 Northern avenue, Tamalpais Valley, collided at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the corner of Northern and Browning.

The California Highway patrol quoted Martinotti as saying he was traveling west on Northern at about 15 miles an hour and did not see the boy until "he was almost on top of me." He complained that trees and shrubs at the intersection cut down his vision.

SECOND MISHAP

In another bicycle-vehicle accident Saturday evening, James Terrelli, 10, of 38 Pinecrest, Mill Valley, suffered bruises for which he was treated at Marin General Hospital.

The CHP said the boy apparently ran his bicycle into a car driven by George W. Tubbs, 41, of Napa, a sailor at the Mare Island galley. The accident happened at 5:10 p.m. at Pinecrest and Shoreline Highway. No citation was issued.

'LONELY FOR DOG'

A third accident, also involving a child, sent David C. Schmidt, 2, to Marin General Hospital with tire bruises on his back. The hospital said his injuries were not serious, but that he is being checked for possible internal injuries. He was reported "much improved" today, but "lonely for his dog."

Young David fell out of the car when his mother, Mrs. Marie Jeanette Schmidt, 386 North Almenar drive, Greenbrae, was trying a turn at Bon Air road and Sir Francis Drake boulevard.

Mrs. Schmidt told the CHP that she grabbed his legs and the vehicle came to a stop. Then it started to move again and she released her hold on the boy to stop the car. By then the auto's right front wheel had passed over him. The Terrell and Kopp boys were taken to the hospital by Marin Ambulance of Larkspur.

Marin Dentist New President Of State Assn.

Dr. G. Thomas Quigg of San Rafael was installed as president of the California State Dental Assn. at the closing session of the annual meeting of its house of delegates yesterday in San Francisco.

The installation preceded the 84th annual scientific meeting of the association which opened at the Fairmont Hotel today.

A graduate of the University of California School of Dentistry in 1927, Dr. Quigg has practiced in San Francisco since his separation from the Navy Dental Corps as a commander in 1945. He resides at 65 Fairway drive, San Rafael.

He is a fellow of the American College of Dentists and assistant clinical professor of operative dentistry at College of Physicians and Surgeons, San Francisco.

Dr. Quigg was elected vice president of the state dental association two years ago and elevated to president-elect last year.

Other officers named at yesterday's meeting were: Dr. Joseph B. Weeden, Palo Alto, president-elect, and Dr. Charles M. Silk, San Francisco, vice president.

DePue To Ask District Drop County Service

Supt. Harold R. DePue will recommend to Kentfield School District trustees tonight that the district drop a $5,850 contract next year with the county schools office and share a consultant with the San Anselmo School District.

"I'm not recommending it because of anything that's been happening in the county schools office," said DePue. He noted that Kentfield and San Anselmo each contract for three days a week of a guidance consultant's time. "It's easier administratively to work through one person than two," the superintendent said.

(Marin school administrators almost to a man opposed the election last November of County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis. After the resignation of the two assistant superintendents that Hollis inherited, other Marin educators began making subrosa threats to stop contracting with the county for various services.)

DePue will also recommend to the Kentfield trustees that a $500 contract with the county

Boys Section In Revolt At Juvenile Hall

One boy challenged another not to go to bed Saturday night at Marin Juvenile Hall, and when they were reprimanded other boys set up a howl. Result: three broken windows.

Chief Probation Officer Walter Busher said the boys, both 15, refused Group Supervisor James Hasson's request that they go to bed. He called in an aide and the two of them forced the boys to their room.

Then the 10-room boys' section started a noisy demonstration. Before quiet was restored, three windows were broken. Busher said the ruckus died down quickly, however, and that he considers the incident "routine."

Sausalitan Tries But Fails To Chip Way Out Of Jail

A drunk suspect from Sausalito, jailed last midnight, spent most of this morning chipping away at a concrete wall in the county jail in an unsuccessful escape attempt.

Lawrence S. Elliott, 29, of 507 Valley street, Sausalito, was to be arraigned today on the drunk charge and the added charge of damaging jail property.

Deputy Sheriff George Tsegetos noticed a gouge in the concrete of cell 4 about 7:45 this morning. Sgt. Vernon Ward, who questioned Elliott, said the suspect admitted trying to escape. He had used a metal drain lid from the cell floor to chip away at the north wall, which adjoins the basement used by the county clerk as storage. The gouge is about 10 inches in diameter and about four inches deep. Elliott's attempt failed to penetrate the concrete.

The last previous attempt at jail break occurred several years ago when an inmate hoisted himself up to the ceiling and poked a hole in the plaster large enough for him to crawl through. But he failed because the outer basement walls hemmed him in.

Heikkila Again Ordered Sent Back To Finland

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—One-armed William Heikkila, whose sudden deportation a year ago stirred a public outcry that led to his return, today again was ordered sent back to his native Finland.

His original deportation and the new order were based on his former membership in the Communist party.

But the 53-year-old draftsman probably will remain in the United States for many months while appeals are heard.

The new exclusion order came from Monroe Kroll, special hearing officer for the Immigration and Naturalization Service. It was the result of closed hearings which began last Aug. 15.

Heikkila came to the United States when only 2 1/2 months old. He never became a citizen. He was seized off a San Francisco street April 18, 1958, by U.S. immigration officers who whisked him to Finland by way of Canada.

Heikkila said he was not even permitted to say goodbye to his wife.

The seizure stirred such a furore that the immigration department brought him back a week later.

Heikkila's original deportation came after he had lost an 11-year battle against exclusion because of his membership in the Communist party in Minnesota from 1929 to 1939.

Stern Sentencing Will Wait A Week

Sausalito poet-publisher Gerd Stern, 30, must wait another week before he is sentenced for marijuana possession.

Judge Thomas F. Keating today continued the case for another week because the probation report was not ready.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and his vice squad arrested Stern and John Leslie Smith, 43-year-old Tiburon engineer, last Feb. 11. Smith was accused of selling marijuana to Stern. Officers found about $2,500 worth of raw marijuana at Smith's home in Muir Beach.

Smith is serving a six-month jail term.

As part of his duties, Bishop Bayne will serve as executive officer of the Anglican Advisory Council on Missionary Strategy, the newly formed planning group for the Anglican Communion's 15 constituent churches.

THE WORST AVERTED — The damaged car of Mrs. Hazel Clark Baxter owes its relatively intact condition of a stack of lumber barely visible under

Lumber Halts Runaway Car In Nick Of Time

A 58-year-old San Rafael housewife, behind the wheel of a runaway car on the California Park hill in San Rafael, saved herself from a perilous descent over a 400-foot bank by steering her car down a narrow driveway and onto a stack of lumber which halted the vehicle.

Mrs. Hazel Clark Baxter of 111 Altana street, wife of San Rafael contractor Murray Baxter, was badly shaken and complained of back pains. She was taken to Marin General Hospital after the 8:15 a.m. accident today.

She told California Highway Patrol Officer Ray Kirner that her brakes went out as she came down Albion street and rounded a curve. The pile of lumber saved her from going over the steep bank, Officer Kirner reported. It was on property of William F. Hansen at 33 Albion street.

NMWD Files For U. S. Salt Water Plant

An application asking that one of five federal pilot plants for converting salt water to fresh water be located at Novato has been filed by the North Marin Water District with the state Department of Water Resources.

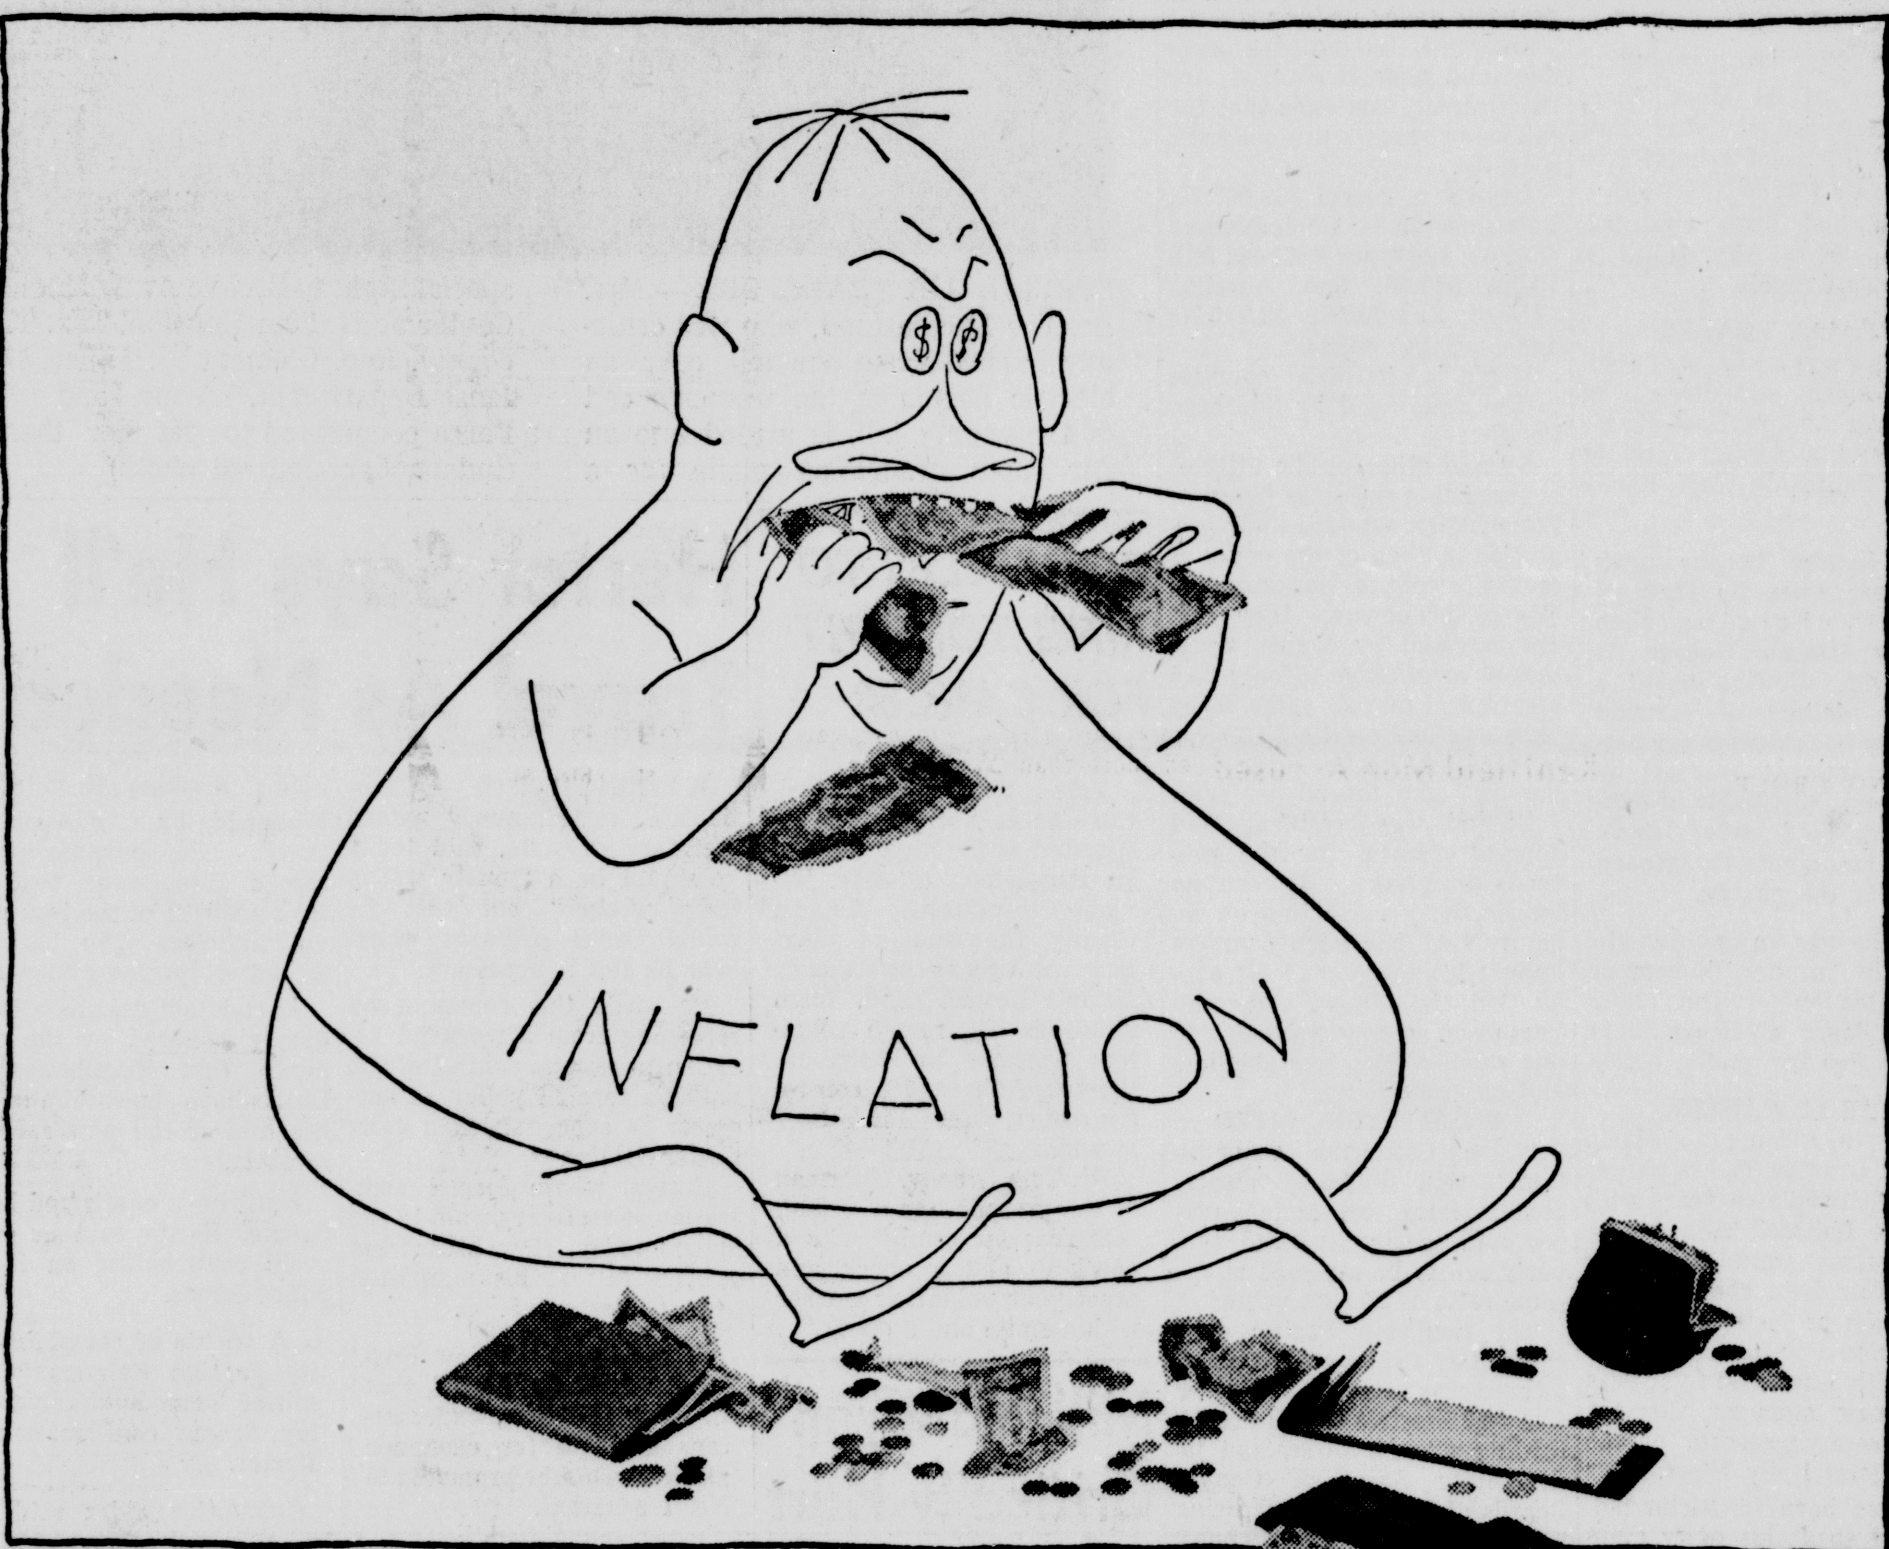

Jerome B. Gilbert, NMWD general manager, said today the application was preliminary only, and that, if the Novato location is determined to have possibilities for the plant on the basis of this preliminary application, state and federal authorities will undoubtedly require more detailed information before making a decision.

Such a plant, if built, would provide the Novato area with an estimated million gallons of water a day over the existing supply, according to water district officials.

Only one of the five plants now planned would be located on the West Coast. Gilbert said there is undoubtedly a great deal of competition among West Coast areas for the plant.

Flips Into Hospital

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—Memorial Hospital attendants say 5-year-old Cynthia Helwig really flipped. She started a series of somersaults in her house and went right on through a window to the ground outside. She was treated for cuts on the face and arm.

32¢ lost from your dollar just since the war

...and year after year the raid goes on!

It doesn't matter whether you call it "inflation" or "dollar nibbling" or "higher living costs."

Of course you've felt it. The steady whittling away at every dollar you spend or save. The struggle to get through until pay day. The fight to make both ends meet, regardless of higher wages.

How can we stop the value of the dollar going down and down?

One of the greatest dangers to the purchasing power of the dollar lies in expecting the Government—whether federal, state or local—to play Santa Claus and bring us new services year after year. We simply can't expect to have all the services we would like, however desirable they may be. Not while we're carrying the biggest peacetime military budget in our history. By pressing for new benefits at a time like this, we face higher and higher taxes... or more and more inflation.

Your representative in Congress understands this. And he knows that in the end it is you who pay the cost of these projects. But he can't hold the line against inflation unless you and others make it clear that this is what you want. Support him in every effort he makes to tighten up on non-defense expenditures and to eliminate waste.

So that you can give your representative the backing he expects and deserves, keep yourself constantly informed of the attitude he is taking. A good place to get that information is through your newspaper.

Council Agrees On Terms Of Sandspit Lease

In an informal "workshop" meeting Saturday afternoon at the city hall, Sausalito city councilmen tentatively agreed to the terms of a resolution approving commercial development of the city-owned sandspit.

The resolution, drawn up by City Atty. John B. Ehlen, covers a proposed sublease between Madden and Lewis and Wetco, Inc., a corporation headed by J. Eugene McAteer. It is expected to be introduced at the regular city council meeting tomorrow night.

The corporation plans to build an elaborate restaurant and shops on the sandspit. All council members were present at the meeting Saturday, along with a small crowd of citizens spectators.

Ehlen said the proposed sublease would include several pertinent points:

(1) The lease would run until the year 2007; (2) A paved pavilion on the south side of the sandspit would be made accessible to public for use as promenade; (3) All buildings and improvements would revert to the city on expiration of the lease; (4) Wetco, Inc., would agree to expend a minimum of $250,000 on the project within two years from the date of the resolution.

The matter will go to the county board of supervisors April 28.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcements has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The head aches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any medication for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

State Sales Tax Repeal Urged In Bill

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Repeal of state and local sales and use taxes and substitution of a higher personal income tax was proposed today by Assemblyman Samuel R. Geddes (D-Napa).

"I don't think the sales tax is equitable," Geddes said. "It doesn't hit everybody alike." The Assemblyman voted against Gov. Edmund G. Brown's proposals for a cigarette and tobacco tax and higher income taxes.

Sales taxes net the state an estimated 600 million dollars a year. Geddes' measure proposes raising the personal income tax to make up the sales tax revenue.

Nerves Produce Variety of Ills

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body?

Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

A fall, a sudden twist or even poor posture may move one of these spinal segments or vertebrae slightly out of line. Nerves become pinched when this happens and a chemical imbalance can result. You begin to feel irritable and have pains and eventually break down in health.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your nervous tension is caused by a misaligned spine. They are well-trained to correct such defects and help restore you to health.

For additional information on Chiropractic care (Palmer Method) write Dr. Robert W. Pearce at 1628 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, or address a card or letter to Dr. R. W. Pearce in care of Independent-Journal Box 725, or call GL 3-6201. Advertisement

MARINWOOD GETS FIRE TRUCK—Chief Donald G. Ray of Marinwood Volunteer Fire Department stands in door of department's pumper truck after its delivery to become first fire-fighting apparatus for the growing Marin community. Also welcoming the fire truck are Supervisor Walter

Marinwood Firemen Receive New Truck

The Marinwood Volunteer Fire Department now has its own fire truck, a new $17,700 engine capable of pumping 750 gallons of water a minute and able to reach any of the 700 homes in the area within five minutes.

The shining red vehicle was delivered last week to the Marinwood fire station, a converted home at the end of Idleberry road on property of the county hospital and farm off Lucas Valley road.

The pumper will be able to reach any home in Marinwood up to 30 minutes faster than was formerly possible, said Donald G. Ray, chief of the 30-member department, which is operated by the Mountain County Services Area. The truck was assembled by the P. E. Van Pelt Co. of Oakdale.

Until now, said Ray, the year-old department has had to depend on help from the county fire stations at Santa Venetia and Woodacre and on Hamilton Air Force Base. Purchase of the truck is but one part of a plan to improve fire protection in Marinwood. Within three or four more weeks, a new air horn will be placed in operation and a "coded area alarm" system inaugurated, which will make it possible for volunteer firemen to report immediately to a fire area when they have learned to recognize the coded horn blasts.

A new telephone—installed too late for listing in the new telephone directory—has been put in at the station, which may be called 24 hours daily for fire service. The number: GL 4-3255.

Chief Ray also announced today that beginning soon, the volunteer firemen will meet twice a month for training sessions, instead of once a month as is now the case.

Additional training sessions will be held at the firehouse on weekdays and weekends, he said.

The new truck is being purchased through a lease-purchase arrangement with interest on unpaid balance to be paid at a rate of 5 per cent per annum. It is owned by the

Girl's Toes Cut In Novato Crash

Margine Sellman, 15, of 813 Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Kentfield, suffered cuts on the toes of her right foot yesterday in a two-car, rear-end collision on Highway 101 three miles north of Novato.

Margine was a passenger in a car driven by William Edwin Magee, 18, of 758 Appleberry drive, Lucas Valley, which hit the rear of one driven by John Alfred Fellman, 54, of San Francisco, the California Highway Patrol reported. Magee was cited for speeding. Miss Sellman was treated by her physician.

Airman Recovering After Amputation

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman, who lost a foot in a vehicle accident at the base Thursday night, was reported in "very good" condition today at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco.

The hospital reported that A/2c Charles E. Walley, 19, has been taken off the "seriously ill" list, and is making a satisfactory adjustment to the fact that his left foot has been amputated.

Walley, assigned to Hamilton's 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, was injured when a motor tug, used for towing aircraft, overturned, pinning his foot.

California GOP Condemns Way Brown Operates

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California's top Republicans don't like the way Gov. Edmund G. Brown operates.

The GOP State Central Committee ended its two-day parley here yesterday with resolutions opposing the Democrat for assertedly using his powers as the state chief executive to push across his legislative program.

The Republican leaders called such action "unprecedented and unwholesome."

A resolution, warmly applauded by the party chiefs, expressed hopes that "never again will the people of California witness these attempts of the executive branch to subvert the legislative process. . . ."

Another resolution condemned the governor and his administration for supporting legislation for a 90 cents an hour minimum wage for California agricultural workers. The GOP said the minimum would attract laborers from other states and create a heavier relief load in the off seasons.

The committee approved a proposal to invite President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon to California for a big rally later in the year.

It was the first full meeting of the GOP chiefs since the Democrats' overwhelming victory last November.

Salesman Charged With Raping Coed

The story of a 16-year-old San Rafael High School coed, who met a traveling salesman on a blind date and was seduced by him in the back seat of his car, came to light today. Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos issued an all-points bulletin for the arrest of Cameron Loessberg, 22, of Southgate on suspicion of statutory rape. Loessberg was a magazine salesman in Marin last February when he met the girl. He has also worked as truck driver.

Novato Forum To Study Integration

A public discussion of the question, "Will Housing Integration End Racial Discrimination?" will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the Novato Community Clubhouse, 906 Machin avenue.

The discussion, sponsored by the Novato Forum, will be conducted by four speakers: Franklin Williams, secretary-counsel, National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People; Jack Danielson, guidance consultant, Marin County Schools; E. Morton Schaffran, former assistant director of the Marin County Housing Authority-Redevelopment Agency, and Rev. Howard Swartz, Novato Presbyterian minister and member of the housing authority-redevelopment agency.

Commercial Fishermen Trying To Get Our Abalone

Tomorrow afternoon the Assembly Fish and Game Committee holds public hearing on a bill which would open the shores of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino to commercial abalone fishing.

This is a battle which has been going on for years. Marin Rod and Gun Club, for example, has expended more than $10,000 over the years in the fight to keep the area for the sportsmen.

The North Coast is the only part of the state left where the abalone supply has not been depleted by the commercial men. It is the only place where the sports fisherman has a chance of making a catch.

This is not just a matter of concern to the legislators from the three counties. Abalone fishermen come from all over the state to these waters. Residents of southern coastal waters, where abalone once were takeable by the sportsmen, now come north because all coastal waters from San Francisco Bay south are open to the commercial interests.

We hope our Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister will be joined by an overwhelming number of other assemblymen in rejecting this bill, as it always has been rejected before.

Let's Keep Some Discrimination

Speaking of legislation, we were fascinated last week with a measure introduced in the Assembly by San Francisco Assemblyman Phillip Burton.

Coming just as the governor was signing the Fair Employment Practices Act, this measure would also ban discrimination in employment because of sex.

Opened immediately is a new vista of job opportunities. It might possibly help alleviate the unemployment situation we've been hearing so much about. For example:

We can see a rush of stalwart young males seeking jobs as housemothers (whoops, we're discriminating)—house-advisors at college sorority houses.

We can picture a cute young thing in ballerina skirts acting as hostess in the men's wash room of the big hotels, shining shoes and the like.

Imagine the rush for jobs in turkish baths, reducing parlors, and the corset fitting industry.

But we doubt that even the strength of the law would ever successfully promote males (naughty word) into jobs as B-girls or as contestants in the Miss Marin contest.

And we're wondering what about employment in the armed forces. Would they have mixed platoons? What about over-night maneuvers?

This is ridiculous.

THOUSANDS OF FOUR-LEAF CLOVERS
Collecting four-leaf clovers has become quite a hobby for a mother and her 17-year-old daughter in British Columbia.

When asked what they intended to do with the 3,425 four-leaf clovers which they kept between the pages of a phone book, the mother replied: "We do not plan to do anything special with them. I guess we'll just keep on collecting them."

A hobby can be a pleasant diversion and need not have any special aim so long as it remains incidental to everything else.

But there is even greater value in having a hobby which benefits others as well as yourself. Most people are seeking fulfillment as well as relaxation.

Devote some of your spare time and energy to the sick, poor and aged; offer your services to youth groups as well as educational and political organizations. If you do, you will find an ever broadening outlet for the abilities entrusted to you by God.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

About one in every six employed persons in America now has a government job.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Take A New Look At Pt. Reyes Park

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

We have sent the enclosed letter to the Board of Supervisors, and believe it contains a matter deserving widespread concern.

Board of Supervisors,
Marin County:

We are deeply disturbed at the Board of Supervisor's opposition to the Point Reyes Park Acquisition.

Communities such as Oakland and Berkeley have only recently learned the hard lesson of not having acquired adequate recreation land when land was cheap, and are now paying dearly for their lack of foresight. Decades ago, when the Bay Area was only beginning to be settled, communities in the East had already had a similar history and were pointing out the lesson to anyone who would listen.

Population (and hence settlement) rises on an accelerating curve, and therefore planning foresight is more critically necessary now than ever in the past.

The argument that losing a small fraction of the total dairy acreage in Marin County will ruin the county's dairy industry seems a meager excuse indeed for passing up an opportunity the uniqueness of which the National Park Service has clearly described to you.

We hope you will take another look at the overall picture.

Why Interest In Bolinas Water?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Why the sudden interest in becoming a director of the Bolinas Public Utility District? For years the duly publicized filing date for the biennial election has passed with a slate of three prospective candidates only. The code provides that under such circumstances the district may be saved the expense of an election.

Anyone knowing the history of our water district can not help but marvel at the foresight and courage of the citizens of Bolinas when in 1927 they secured for all time and $10,000 certain rights to the crystal clear water near the source of the Rio Honda and brought it from an intake dam by gravity flow to storage tanks in Bolinas.

One marvels also at the careful management which has since made this service possible with little change in tax or water rates.

Grateful thanks are due to Jimmy Bourne, Sam Mostovoy and Warren McKinney and to those other directors who have so generously given of their time in the 32 years existence of the district.

Their stated policy has been to make improvements as far as possible through revenue. New tanks have been installed pipe replaced in this manner. In 1952 an older pipe from the water source was replaced by a new large one at a cost of some $56,000. This cost was partly financed by a $45,000 bond issue.

In the Independent-Journal of March 24, '59, Mr. (Tom) Barfield is quoted as saying, "We are not critical of the actions by the incumbent board. But it is the absence of positive action which we deplore."

No one (least of all the present directors) claims that the service would not be greatly improved (particularly in terms of pressure for the newer residents who have built high on the hills) by replacement of the distribution system within the district.

This is a simple engineering problem but it takes money and would require another bond issue and an accompanying raise in water rates or taxes.

Is this what Mr. Barfield's

BENNETT CERF

When sports writers are together long enough, the conversation inevitably drifts round to reminiscences of the great Ring Lardner. A Chicago baseball writer thinks Lardner's most memorable creation was the stranger who bobbed up at the wedding of a drug tycoon and Hugga Much, an Eskimo beauty queen.

The stranger turned out to be the electric chair tester at Sing Sing, whose duty consisted of sitting in the chair just before an execution, and telling the electrician whether the current was just right or a teenty-weenty bit too strong.

In 1893 a printer named Humphrey O'Sullivan had an inspiration. He invented the "rubber heel" to make walking easier. Some time later, observes Sam Himmell, a designer of women's shoes had an inspiration that proved even more successful. He invented "high heels" for young girls — so they wouldn't be kissed on the forehead.

Mill Valley, San Anselmo May Join Forces To Hire One Cities' Engineer

Whether Mill Valley and San Anselmo will have a jointly-hired full time city engineer is the intriguing possibility now under consideration.

The matter started when Mill Valley City Manager Al Almcraints and San Anselmo's Art Brewer saw the possibility of the two cities splitting the cost and time of a full time engineer.

Brewer tried to get an OK for a full time public works director last year to replace fee-basis John C. Oglesby, but the council wouldn't go for it.

Almcraints says that Mill Valley's fee basis engineer Al Siemer has said he's planning a lengthy summer trip and Almcraints feels the increasing number of major projects approved and pending require an engineer's services for more time.

The San Anselmo council has told Brewer (Carmel Booth dissenting) to further explore the idea. Almcraints has yet to present the proposal to the Mill Valley council.

WE WELCOME a new recruit to our expanding Southern Marin news gathering staff. He is George Coleman, personable proprietor of the Cove Nursery in Belvedere and a staunch member of the Belvedere Volunteer Fire Department. He is our source of reports on activities of the B.V.F.D.

SAUSALITO'S Mayor Howard Sievers has found a sure fire way to make council meetings come to an early conclusion.

First, rule out discussion of controversial matters. (Last week, discussion of the sand-spit hot potato was ruled out of bounds since Councilman Phil Ehrlich, champion of one faction was out of town.)

Second, arrange for a TV program at an early hour which the council should view. (City Attorney John Ehlen was star performer on a show involving the arks and barges controversy.)

The council meeting adjourned at 9:20, ten minutes before the start of the Ehlen opus.

MORRIE CARLSON of Mill Valley's Do-Nut Kettle is normally very busy on Tuesday's when salesmen of all types make their rounds.

Last Tuesday was different, Morrie reports. Not a salesman.

He opines they were either attending their grandmother's funeral or checking on the first game of the baseball season.

LAST WEEK, the decorum of Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon was violently upset when the Chamber of Commerce had its monthly meeting.

Feature of the meeting was a stereophonic sound demonstration presented by the telephone company. One of the sounds in the film was that of a diesel train which caused other guests to run through the place to see the train. No train.

Then, as the film depicted a juke box at full strength, owner Sam Vella came rushing through the place to shut off his own juke box because of the noise before guests were disturbed. It wasn't turned on. All very disconcerting.

THERE ARE SURE a lot of law breakers in Mill Valley getting away unscathed.

City Attorney Tom Nelson says there is an ordinance on the books making it a misdemeanor to have poison oak growing on your property.

Maybe property owners prefer the penalty to getting poison oak.

gotiations with the Soviets.

IN 1949, DULLES was appointed to fill a U.S. Senate vacancy from New York. While in the Senate he helped to put through approval North Atlantic Treaty Organization which he had earlier helped to draft.

He was defeated for reelection to the Senate, but President Truman made him a consultant to Secretary of State Dean Acheson. In that capacity he drafted and successfully negotiated a peace treaty with Japan. He made it a treaty free of punishment for Japan's role in World War II and was proud to call it, as he often did, a "peace of reconciliation."

He was never again able to put across such a clear-cut and definitive solution to such a highly complex problem. The great peacemaking issue which he inherited from his predecessors concerned the future of divided Germany, and that problem after many frustrations he has now had to pass on to his successor.

21 Marinites Learn To Detect Radioactivity

Twenty-one persons Saturday completed a two-month course in detecting radioactive fall-out, and will be able to man a new county Civil Defense trailer with equipment to measure radioactivity.

Civil Defense Director Donald A. Jensen said the course was taught by Barry Milliken, trained employee of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., at the San Anselmo American Legion Log Cabin.

L. R. Schlosser of Fairfax, and one of those who completed the course, made American Legion arrangements for the voluntary training. In the event of emergency, Jensen said, the trailer, which has been assigned for delivery to Marin by the State Disaster Office, will be manned by these Legion volunteers. The trailer will be placed at county fire department headquarters in Woodacre.

Others who completed the course: P. W. Pollock, W. G. Harrington, D. R. McMurtry, G. L. Ostaggi, Toby Pechner, Tony Pukis, Barney Clancy, and Mrs. David Boyd.

Also on the program will be presentation of an American flag to Girl Scout Troop 29, which the unit sponsors.

'Burning At Stake' In Game Kills Boy

FAIR HAVEN, Vt. (UPI)—A 13-year-old boy was fatally burned while tied to a stake during a "cowboys and Indians" game which one youngster made more "realistic" by lighting a grass fire.

Before the boys realized the terrible consequences of lighting the fire so near the victim, Charles Andrus, the flames enveloped the youngster's clothes.

Charles died in a Rutland Hospital yesterday, about 24 hours after the mishap in a vacant lot.

Council Calls Off Meeting On Audit

A scheduled meeting of three Corte Madera town councilmen with Town Auditor Douglas Black and Town Treasurer Col. John R. Vance was called off Saturday because not all of the principals could be present.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said the council is expected to set a new date for the session when it meets tonight at 8 o'clock in the town hall.

Purpose of the scheduled "work session" was to hear both sides of a dispute between Black and Vance over Black's audit of town books and records. The treasurer has told the council that as far as his records are concerned "The so-called audit... was no audit."

Ex-Ambassador, Ballerina Sought In Panama Plotting

PANAMA (AP)—Panamanian sea forces today hunted former Ambassador Roberto Arias, husband of famed British ballerina Margot Fonteyn, with a warrant charging him with revolutionary activity.

Arias, former ambassador to Great Britain, and his wife were reported on a fishing trip in the Gulf of Panama. Minister of Government Max Heurtematte said their launch was spotted once yesterday but disappeared.

Heurtematte said Arias' arrest was ordered after an informant said he planned to lead an attack on the National Guard post in Chorrera, about 20 miles from Panama City.

Arias, 41-year-old son of ex-President Harmodio Arias, is the latest prominent politician implicated in a revolutionary wave which President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr. charges is building up against his regime.

Three small rebel bands, mostly of students, began operating from mountainous sections of the country early in April, apparently trying to ape the guerrilla tactics Fidel Castro used to overthrow the Cuban dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista. Four rebels have been killed and six captured in skirmishes with the National Guard, Panama's army and police.

Terrorists Curb Algeria Voting

(Combined AP and UPI)

ALGIERS—Algerian rebels burned one candidate alive and cut off the head of another in a campaign of terror that kept Moslem voters away from the polls yesterday in Algeria's municipal elections.

Unofficial reports said at least 16 persons had been killed and nearly 70 wounded so far by rebel terrorists seeking to sabotage the voting ordered by the French.

The voting began yesterday and will last a week. In the city of Algiers, 45 per cent of those eligible balloted. In the countryside—where the French army is in direct control—some 60 per cent braved the threat of rebel reprisal.

Early returns from three wards in Algiers gave a lead to an extreme right wing faction favoring Algerian integration with France and an end to the government of President Charles de Gaulle.

Although only municipal offices are at stake, the campaign centered on a struggle between backers and opponents of de Gaulle.

City voters had a choice of candidates, but voters in more than 60 per cent of the rural communities had only candidates approved and mustered by the French authorities.

China Stunned At Lama's Tale Of Tibet Revolt

TOKYO (AP)—Red China apparently has been stunned by the Dalai Lama's insistence that it savagely suppressed the Tibetan independence movement and forced him into exile.

This is suggested by the sudden interruption of the plenary sessions of the Chinese Parliament in Peiping, and the official silence the Reds have maintained toward the fugitive young ruler's statement.

The Communists have been insisting that the Tibetan rebels forced the Dalai Lama to flee with them. The Reds seem to have counted on Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru muzzling his guest in the interests of Chinese-Indian relations already strained by events in Tibet.

The Chinese people's congress went into a two-day recess Saturday soon after it opened, possibly to permit Mao Tze-tung, Premier Chou Enlai and other top Reds to examine the new situation created by the Dalai Lama's accusations.

The Chinese delay in replying to these charges—which have seriously damaged Peiping's prestige in Asia—indicates that they were caught flat-footed.

They have had nearly a month to prepare for the possibility that the Dalai Lama would reach haven in one of Tibet's neighboring countries and disclose the truth of the situation in his homeland.

Papal Visit, Parties Await Ex-Queen, Margaret In Rome

ROME (AP)—Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth of Britain arrive tonight for a six-day private visit that will include an audience with Pope John XXIII and an all-night champagne party.

Margaret's visit set off a frantic scramble on the cafe society black market for invitations to the champagne party and a formal dinner at the British Embassy. Invitations were fetching up to $80 in the black market.

The royal pair were preceded by a flock of rumors including one that Margaret's talk with the Pope is a step toward conversion in the Roman Catholic Church. Vatican sources said they had heard nothing about such rumors and declined even to discuss the possibility.

The princess talked privately with the late Pope Pius XII for 18 minutes on a visit in 1949 and the same rumors arose and were denied.

Nearly half the 60,000 population of British Honduras lives in the city of Belize.

Bolivia Revolt Leader Kills Himself After Rightist Uprising Collapses

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—The leader of yesterday's short-lived revolt committed suicide after his rightist uprising was crushed, the government announced today. At least 22 persons were slain, and more than 50 were wounded in the course of the attempted coup.

The government of this poverty-plagued nation said Oscar Unzuaga de la Vega, head of the Falange party, took his life last night in a house in the outskirts of this capital in which he had hidden. His bodyguard, Juan Gallardo, also shot himself to death, the government announcement said.

President Hernan Siles Suazo announced the defeat of members of the Falange party who tried to seize the city hall yesterday, attacked an army barracks and marched on the government radio station and municipal offices.

Government forces broke up the attacks and then began a cleanup of rebels.

Many of the wounded were reported to be bystanders caught in the crossfire between government forces and insurgents. Scattered shooting was still heard, but rebels were reported turning in their arms.

HERNAN SILES SUAZO
Defeats revolutionaries

Two insurgent leaders were captured: Rafael Loayza, a retired colonel, and Luis Saenz.

A government radio station said Siles had declared a state of siege—modified martial law—throughout the country.

There were no reports of trouble outside of La Paz. The government said it held control of all provincial capitals.

Official reports from Cochabamba and Oruro said peasants and workers had joined the government militia in controlling those cities.

The Falange is the main opposition to Siles Suazo's Nationalist Revolutionary Movement (MNR), which led a successful revolution seven years ago and won more than 80 per cent of the votes in national elections in 1956.

The president in a broadcast last night said the revolt was planned by Falange head Unzuaga and Carlos Victor Aramayo, whose large tin properties in Bolivia were nationalized in 1952. Aramayo now lives in Europe.

Nationalization of the tin mines and land reform were the two chief planks in the MNR program, but the tin nationalization particularly has not produced the prosperity the party anticipated.

The country's economic position has worsened steadily despite considerable U.S. aid. Tin miners have struck twice in the past six weeks in protest against higher commissary food prices which the government ordered at the urging of the international monetary fund.

Ike Appeals To Krushchev On Test Ban

GENEVA (AP)—President Eisenhower has made a personal appeal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to take the nuclear test suspension talks out of their present deadlock, it was disclosed here today.

A letter from the President to Khrushchev was referred to at today's meeting of the three-power conference. It was understood to urge serious Soviet consideration of a Western proposal for a step-by-step approach to the problem of ceasing atomic and hydrogen weapons tests.

The disclosure of the letter was made as if by accident by a Soviet spokesman. U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth refused to confirm or deny it, but later Western sources made it clear the letter had been mentioned.

There was no indication of when the letter was written. The Western step-by-step proposal was made April 13 after Easter recess.

Under this plan the three powers would first stop nuclear tests on the surface of the earth, under water and in the atmosphere to a height of 31 miles. The problem of banning underground and outer space blasts would be left for later negotiations.

Tars Two-Time Shasta In Golden Valley Play

College of Marin Tars had another four-game winning streak going today after they two-timed the Shasta Knights, 4-2 and 9-6 Saturday in a Golden Valley Conference double-header at Redding.

Right-fielder Jim Harris' two-run single in the eighth inning was the key blow for Marin in the opener while Bill Ahern turned in top-notch relief pitching in the nightcap as his mates rallied for five runs in the last two innings for the victory.

Marin now has eight wins and four losses in league play. Lefty Bobby DeRosa scored his fourth league victory in the opener as he limited Shasta to five hits while striking out 14 batters and walking only two.

Besides Harris' key blow Marin's offense was led by Bob Kelleher, Ahern and DeRosa each with two hits. Kelleher had a double, as did Fred Pfeffer.

After the Knights hit Gene Klein and DeRosa freely in the early innings of the nightcap, Ahern came on to snuff out the rally and then was credited with the victory as Marin turned on the steam in the late frames.

John Brookman with a triple and single, Kelleher with a double and single and Ahern with a pair of safeties paced Marin's hit parade.

Next Saturday Coach Ed Grimm takes his Tars to Auburn to meet Sierra.

California set two meet records in winning its first victory from UCLA in four years, 77 to 54.

Cebon Russ broad-jumped 24 feet 7 inches, breaking a 25-year-old mark of 24 5/8 set by Cal's Bob Clark in 1934.

Bear Alan Gaylord ran the two-mile in 9:15.5 to break the 9:18.1 mark set in 1955 by UCLA's Bob Hunt.

San Jose Coach Bud Winter says he will seek to have Norton certified as a co-holder of the 100 meter world record.

Norton, who already is listed as co-holder of the 100-yard record of 9.3, blazed across the 100 meter course in 10.1 in a three-way match with the San Francisco Olympic Club and the Santa Clara Youth Center.

Hungarian Laszlo Tabori of the Youth Center came within .5 second of tying the American two-mile record. He was clocked at 8:46.8.

The meet ended at San Jose 79, Youth Center 43 and Olympic Club 42.

Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., won the 100-mile race which was shortened to 87 laps because of rain.

In winning, Bettenhausen covered the 87 laps on the mile asphalt track in 57 minutes 15.69 seconds. Only a few lengths behind in second place was Roger Ward of Speedway, Ind. Jimmy Davies of Pacoima, Calif. was third and Jim Rathman of Miami fourth. Only 11 of the 217 cars that started finished.

Other finishers in order were: Elmer George, Speedway, Ind.; Bobby Grimm, Indianapolis; Jerry Unser, Long Beach, Calif.; Joe Barzda, New Brunswick, N. J.; Van Johnson, Bally, Pa., and Jim Packard, Indianapolis.

S. F. 'Wealthy' In Pitching Sell Pair

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants were down to their legal limit of 25 players today after pitchers Curt Barclay and Billy Muffett were sold outright to the team's Phoenix farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

Each had pitched only one-third of an inning for the varsity this year. Both were hit hard during an 11-3 pasting by the Cubs.

"It will give them a chance to work steadily down there," Manager Bill Rigney said yesterday. "They don't get a chance to do very much now with the way our pitching shapes up."

Barclay was an established hurler with the New York Giants in 1957 and was 12-8 with Phoenix last year. Muffett came to the Giants in a trade that also brought catcher Hobie Landrith to San Francisco and sent pitchers Ernie Broglio and Marv Grissom to St. Louis.

Antonelli, Cepeda Continue Sparkling Play For S.F.

John Wins 3rd Straight Orlando's Bat Sizzles

Stylish Johnny Antonelli, first major leaguer to hurl three 1959 victories, says that when he needs that big pitch, "I can reach back and find something where I could not last year."

The lefthander's pitching and the slugging of sophomore first baseman Orlando Cepeda highlight the play to date of the San Francisco Giants.

Cepeda, rookie of the year in 1958, has hit safely in each of the nine opening games. His production includes five homers as the Giants, .133 percentage points behind the league leading Milwaukee Braves, open a series tonight at Los Angeles. Sad Sam Jones will hurl against the Dodgers' Don Drysdale.

Antonelli declares he feels much stronger this spring than he did a year ago when he reported to the club after having fought a winter battle with pneumonia.

St. Louis Cardinals down 3-1 yesterday on eight scattered hits, struck out five and didn't issue a walk. The performance gave him an earned run average of 2.07 for the 26 innings he has pitched, just one frame short of three complete games.

In 1954 when the Giants won the National League pennant and world championship for New York Antonelli paced the loop with a record of 21 victories against seven defeats.

Last year, in the Giants' introduction to San Francisco, the Rochester, N. Y., hurler led the club with a 16-13 mark and a 3.27 ERA.

Asked if he felt at ease working against the Cardinals, Johnny replied:

"With that wind out there, you can never feel at ease. I had a two-run lead, but when they had a man on base, the batter could have tied it up with a home run. And if a hit gets into that wind, it could be a homer."

The "jet stream" blowing toward left field in Seals Stadium causes pitchers alarm, but Cepeda, a right-handed hitter, can't find it a disadvantage. The 213-pound, 21-year-old Puerto Rican blasts the ball in that general direction and crashed five home runs in four days during the home stand.

He didn't connect for the circuit in the last game, but his second inning double started the Giants on their winning way.

Orlando is averaging .385 on 15 hits in 39 trips to the plate, including his homers, a triple and five doubles. He has batted in 12 runs.

Boswell Wins 5th Straight 'Blind' Golf Tournament

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (P)—A 36-hole card of 194—out of sight for many unhandicapped golfers—won Charlie Boswell his fifth successive National Blind Golf Tournament title.

Boswell has done much better. He holds a 1956 tourney record of 137 strokes, but yesterday the Birmingham, Ala., insurance executive came from behind to win by 10 strokes over Canadian Phil Lederhouse of Prince Albert Sask.

Boswell's round of 95 in the final 18 holes was the best of the two-day tournament.

Other scores included Harold Mitchell, Hamilton, Ont., 209; Peter Bell, Detroit, 211; and Joe Lazar, Waltham, Mass., and Claude Pattemore, Hamilton, Ont., both 212.

GIANTS' PITCHING LIFTS FLAG HOPES

Lack of pitching doomed the San Francisco Giants' chances for a pennant last season, but this is a different year.

Consecutive sparkling performances by Jack Sanford Saturday and John Antonelli yesterday left the Giant pitching staff with a 2.67 earned run average. The club ERA for 1958 was a hefty 3.98.

Sanford gave up only one hit—Stan Musial's pinch single—in beating St. Louis 8-1 and the Card run was unearned. Antonelli gave up eight blows and a single earned run in setting back the Cards 3-1.

In all, the Giant pitchers have given up just 24 earned runs in 81 innings. They have allowed 70 hits.

Antonelli now has three straight victories and has pitched two complete games compared to last year at this time when he had failed to finish any of three starts and had a 0-1 record, having given up eight earned runs and 11 hits in 11 2/3 innings.

This year Antonelli has given up six earned runs and 23 hits in 26 innings.

The Giants' other complete game pitcher so far this year is Sad Sam Jones who, like Sanford, was acquired after last season. Jones has given up four earned runs and 16 hits in 15 innings and has a 1-1 record. Sanford, who has a 1-1 record, has given up five earned runs and seven hits in 17 innings.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Podres Handcuffs Cubs; Duke Finally Hits HR

By ASSOCIATED PRESS Los Angeles stuck 'on the heels of the San Francisco Giants yesterday by scoring five runs in the eighth inning to beat Chicago 8-3. The Dodgers are only a half game behind the Giants going into tonight's opener of their three-game series with San Francisco at the L.A. Coliseum.

Johnny Podres, who usually does his best in the Coliseum, recovered from a miserable start and threw a four-hitter at the Cubs for his first victory.

Duke Snider finally came through with his first homer of the year, moving into 10th place on the all-time list. It was his 332nd homer, moving him ahead of Hank Greenberg on the role of select sluggers.

Cincinnati's power-packed lineup did a little slugging at Crosley Field, burying the Phillies 12-5 despite some unsteady pitching by rookie Jim O'Toole.

After the rookie had walked seven, Manager Mayo Smith brought in Bob Mabe to take over in the fifth. He allowed only two hits in 4 1/3 innings.

Frank Robinson continued his slugging spree, knocking in four runs with a homer and a single. It was his third home run of the season.

Milwaukee had to postpone its scheduled game with Pittsburgh because of cold weather and a threat of rain.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians finally were beaten after winning six straight. Kansas City did the job 4-3, scoring four in the ninth off Herb Score. Zeke Belia's pinch double with the bases loaded was the big blow.

Frank Malzone's 12th inning home run off Ryne Duran gave Boston a 5-4 decision over the New York Yankees after a pinch homer by 42-year-old Enos Slaughter (he'll be 43 on April 27) of New York tied the score in the ninth. The Detroit at Chicago game was postponed because of cold weather.

Baltimore and Washington split a pair at Baltimore, the Orioles rallied with six runs in the seventh to grab the opener 7-5. Russ Kemmerer went the route for Washington in its 4-2 second game triumph as Harmon Killebrew and Jim Lemon homered for the Senators.

Podres and Dave Hillman were locked in a 3-3 tie when the Dodgers broke loose in the eighth. Wally Moon's single drove in the first two runs. Junior Gilliam, Snider, Don Demeter and Charley Neal also singled in the big inning.

Flaherty Winner Of 78-Mile Stockton Race

STOCKTON (P)—Jack Flaherty of San Francisco, driving a Lister-Jaguar, won the 78 mile event at the seventh annual Stockton Sports Car Races yesterday in 65 minutes, 12 seconds.

A crowd estimated at 17,000 watched the races over the 2.6-mile course at Stockton Airport.

There was no serious accident in the 30-lap feature.

Looks Like Giants-Bums Rivalry Hotter Than It Was In The East

LOS ANGELES — If you think the rivalry between the Dodgers and Giants died when they left New York, perish the thought.

Tonight a large crowd is expected to pile into the Coliseum when the clubs tangle in the first of an 11-game set to here in the 1959 schedule. The clubs meet also on Tuesday and Wednesday evening.

There are no flies on the Dodger "brass." They've billed only 11 day games during the 1959 season. One of these, and only one, is set for a week day. The other 10 are Sunday afternoon affairs. Even those would have been eliminated had it not been due to the transportation problems.

To an old Los Angeles observer, I detect an intense rivalry between the Dodgers and Giants, greater even than the hated duels between the clubs staged in the east.

Writers here make a half-hearted attempt to be neutral, but do a very poor job of it. In fact I read one scribbler who even thought the Giants were over-rated and that before long the boys now clubbing the pill will drop back to their normal gait.

ABOUT THE ONLY Giant who gets the raves is Willie Mays, the Say Hey Kid. And that, of course, is due in no small measure to Lippy Durocher, who hangs out down there and never misses a chance to sing the praise of Willie.

Orlando Cepeda, in many quarters, is looked upon as a freak hitter, ideally endowed for smacking long high flies to match the San Francisco winds.

And, if you ask me, that is all Cepeda has to do here to become a home run hitter of great proportions. If Jackie Brandt and Orlando and Felipe Alou have on their hitting pants I wouldn't be surprised to see the Giants take the three game series in one sweep. They have, of course, a great respect for Don Drysdale, the fireball slinger of the Dodgers. But even he can't keep his fast pitches inside the chicken wire leftfield fence.

The series which gets under way here tonight is an important takeoff for the Giants. It takes them on their extended eastern jaunt.

They play 15 games in all before they return to the Seals Stadium to meet the Dodgers again on May 7. Betwixt and between the S. F. club tangles with the Dodgers (3), Chicago (3), Philadelphia (2), Pittsburgh (2), Milwaukee (3) and Cincinnati (2).

OF THOSE 15 games, only four are day games, two at Chicago and two at Milwaukee. So that should give you a pretty fair idea of how the big league moguls look upon nocturnal battles.

So far the consensus of opinion on the S. F. Giants HERE is that the warm spring weather in Arizona put the players a little ahead of the clubs training in Florida in the rainy and cool weather.

It's hard for any Angelano to figure a San Franciscan can outdo this town in ANYTHING. They laugh at Horace Stoneham, Giant owner, when he chirps about San Francisco being a better baseball town than Los Angeles.

The theory down here, and you've got to go along with it to a big extent, is that most of the surrounding counties are inhabited by people who were raised on watching big league baseball. And the population in L.A. is so much greater than in S.F. that it makes one wonder howinhell the Giants ever got a million people into their games last year in a park that only seats 22,500 fans.

SO IF this three-game series starting tonight between the Dodgers and Giants stacks in 200,000, as the writers think it will, it's going to be pretty tough for our boys to catch up for the balance of the season, even when they play the Dodgers at Candlestick Park late in the season.

But as long as the rivalry between the Giants and Dodgers keeps smoldering, Messrs. Stoneham and O'Malley can afford to exchange quips about who made the best move in "going west."

Tam won the Class B competition, in which five records fell and another was tied. The Indians piled up 55 1/2 points to second-place Drake's 39 1/2.

ampionship of any sport in the Class C events. The Giants beat off Drake, 31 1/2-25. Tam was third with 18.

TOP ATHLETE

Marshall's other triumphs were in the pole vault, with a vault of 11 feet 4 inches and the 180-yard low hurdles, in which he missed by one-tenth of a second tying the record of 20.6 seconds. He was voted the "Outstanding Athlete" of the meet, and received a trophy for his achievements.

Probably the finest effort of the afternoon was the mile record of 4:31.6 set by Drake's Hagen Bruckner. His time, which compares favorably with any ever made in northern California, cracked the former record by a full 5.3 seconds.

Dave Neumann took Redwood's only first with a 52-second 440-yard run. The long-striding Giant speedster survived a belated challenge by Ron Candray of Drake in the last 30 yards to gallop home first.

A mild upset occurred in the shot put competition, where San Rafael's Travis Key beat his favored teammate, Ron Snidow, with a put of 49 feet 2 inches. Snidow's best was four inches shorter.

DISCUS CHAMP

Big Ron grabbed the discus title, however. His heave of 160-10 1/2 will be listed as a new record, because this year California high schools switched from a 3-pound 4-ounce discus to one that weighs 2 pounds 9 ounces. Snidow set the old mark of 129-6 last year.

A five-way tie for high jump honors, and a San Rafael broad jump sweep highlighted the field competition. Three Tamites and two Bulldogs all high jumped 5-9, but none could better that mark. San Rafael's John Winters led three teammates to a clean sweep of the broad jump. His winning leap was 20 feet 3 inches.

Tam won the 880-yard relay event, anchored by Tim Farrell. The speedy Injun ace also won the 220-yard dash, and was third in the 100. His teammate, Ray Edwards, captured first.

TAMITES STAR

Four of the new B marks, and the record tying 75-yard dash were made by Tamites. John Harris ran 75 yards in 8 seconds flat, and broadjumped 20 feet 5 inches to etch his name in the record book. The other Tam record setters were Pat Morgan in the 150-yard dash, James Robinson in the pole vault, and the Indian 440-yard relay team.

Dennis Bailey of Drake established the other new standard with a time of 9.3 seconds in the 70-yard high hurdle event. The old record was 9.4 seconds.

Rick Basco and Tom Kearns sparked Redwood to its Class C victory. Basco took first in the 120-yard low hurdles and the broad jump, while Kearns colared a first in the shot put, a second in the 75-yard dash and a third in the 150 yard dash.

BASEBALL

Daring Tam Meets S. R. Tomorrow

Tamalpais Indians will try to keep in stride with league-leading Vallejo in the North Bay League baseball race tomorrow when they visit the San Rafael Bulldogs in the biggie of Marin high school baseball this week.

San Rafael will be faced with the most daring club in the league in Tam as the Indians have stolen 34 bases in 38 attempts in league play this year. Any lapse in the Bulldog defense could start the Tam merry-go-round around the bases.

The game will be played at Albert Field starting at 4 o'clock.

Other games will pit Redwood against Montgomery and Santa Rosa against Drake.

Friday Tam will entertain Napa, Vallejo will play Redwood at Albert Field in San Rafael, San Rafael will visit Drake, and Montgomery will be at Santa Rosa. Next week the teams conclude the first half of their round-robin schedule. The second half will begin May 1.

Meanwhile, in Catholic Athletic League play tomorrow the Marin Catholic Wildcats will trek to San Francisco to meet Riordan at 3:30 p.m.

Miller, Evans Win Team Golf Event

Max Miller and Jerry Evans teamed up to post a winning score of 59 in the Indian Valley Golf Club's blind team best ball tournament yesterday, one stroke ahead of Roy Mandery and K. J. Beard.

In medal sweepstakes play Phil Nathan, currently enjoying a hot streak that should bring about a reduction in his handicap, again walked off with top honors. He grossed a 74 and, a 13 handicap, came in with a 60, six strokes ahead of George Phelps and Fred Volz. Phelps had 96-30-66 and Volz 72-6-66. Andy Somerville was next with 82-14-68.

Boros, Burke Clash In Houston Finale

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Julius Boros, a Connecticut native who likes to win the big ones, met Jack Burke Jr., who grew up on Houston golf courses, in an 18-hole playoff today for $4,300 top money in the $30,000 Houston Golf Tournament.

Burke and Boros pulled ahead of Arnold Palmer, the pace-setter for 71 holes, in an exciting finish yesterday for a 72-hole deadlock at 277—11 under par.

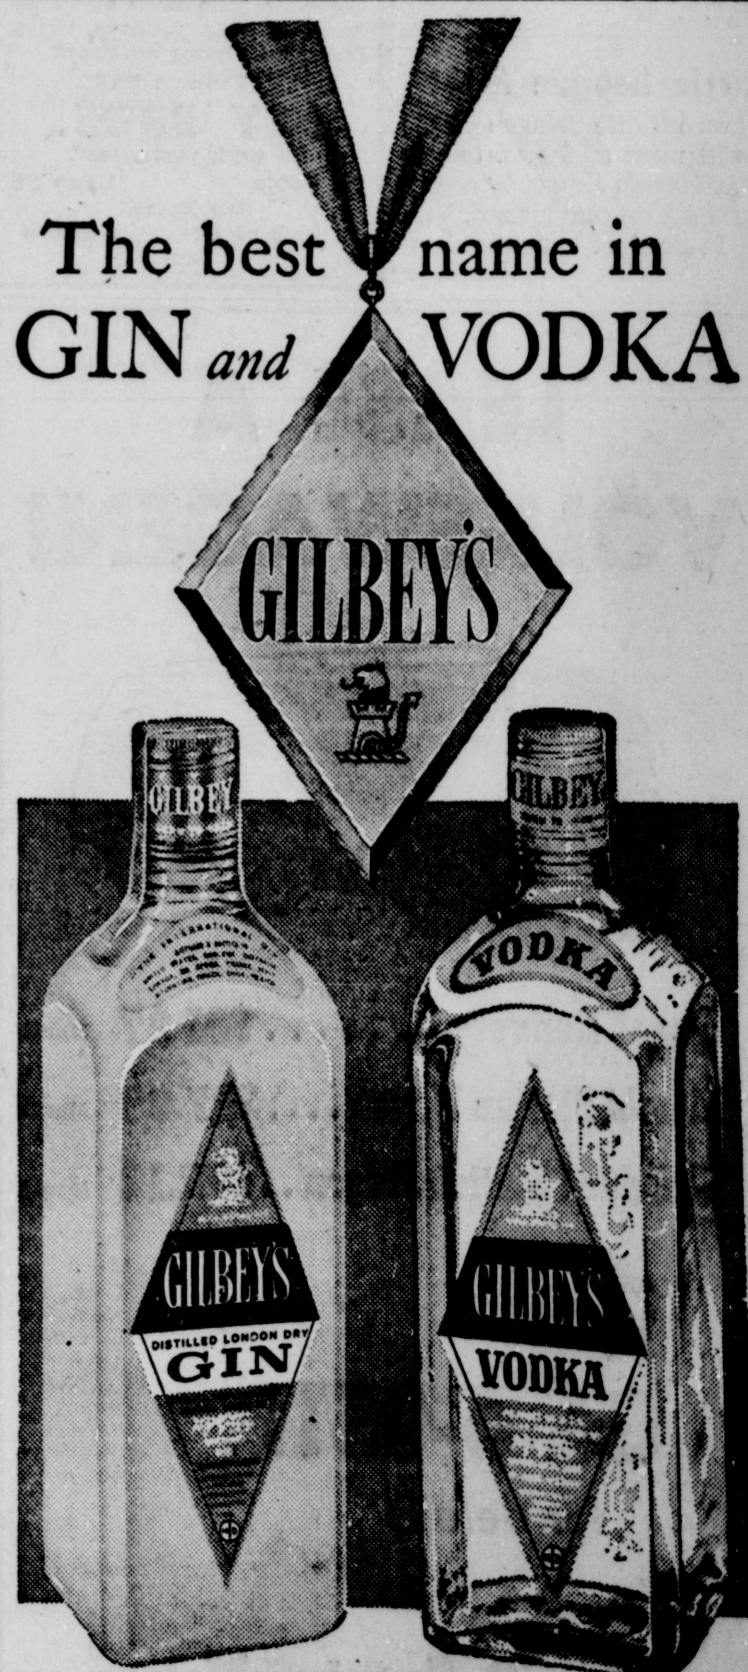

Boros birdied the last two holes for his tie. Burke missed an eight-footer on the final green that would have given him victory. Palmer approached the 18th green needing a par to force a three-way tie but missed a five-footer by inches for a bogey.

Palmer's final hole bogie dropped him to a 68-68-71-73—278 and a tie for third place with Mike Souchak, who had a final round 67. Each collected $1,850.

Cary Middlecoff, with a 67-70-71-71—270, tied with Chick Harbert, Northville, Mich., and Freddie Haas, New Orleans, each collecting $1,400.

Kansas Wins Relays

A HAPPY OCCASION—Missouri's Senator Stuart Symington and former President Harry Truman, share

mer President Harry Truman shares at Lamar, Mo., where Truman's birthplace (rear) was dedicated as a public shrine. (AP Wirephoto).

Truman's Birthplace Becomes Public Shrine

(Combined AP and UPI) LAMAR, Mo.—Former President Harry S. Truman's birthplace—a small, white frame cottage in a little southwest town of 4,000—was a state monument today. Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said the United Nations, Point Four and the Marshall Plan also were monuments to Truman.

Truman listened to it all yesterday, then remarked:

"They have called me a statesman here. But do you know what a statesman is? He's a dead politician. I'm a politician and expect to stay one."

It was the first time Truman had visited his birthplace in 15 years.

The six-room, white frame cottage was bought by the United Auto Workers Union for $6,000 and given to the state of Missouri. The deed was handed to Gov. James T. Blair by Leonard Woodcock, UAW international vice president.

The state Park Board has restored the house, furnished it in period style and opened it to the public.

Truman was only 11 months old when his parents moved from Lamar to a farm in Jackson County near Kansas City. But that makes no difference to the residents of Lamar, a town of 4,000 population 122 miles south of Kansas City.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) agreed with them in his dedication speech.

"Starting today," Symington said, "people will come to Lamar to study the beginnings of this man's life. All can learn that greatness can be bred in humble surroundings."

"All can learn that here, in our country, we have been able to create a very special kind of man—common and extraordinary, lighthearted and determined, kind and firm, able to love his family and care passionately about the future of the world."

Novato Little League Mothers will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Marion School to organize and set up committees. Mrs. Jean L. Stewart announced today.

SEVEN COVERED WAGONS BEGIN 2,000-MILE TREK TO OREGON

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Seven covered wagons left neighboring Independence yesterday, bound for Oregon. After a wet and chilly day on the trail, they have 2,000 miles to go.

Twenty-one persons are aboard the wagons. They plan to follow the old Oregon Trail from Independence, Mo., to Independence, Ore.

Re-enactment of the epic trek of the frontier West is part of Oregon's statehood centennial celebration.

The trip is expected to take 100 days. From Kansas City, the wagons head west to Topeka, Kan., then north-west through Nebraska, Wyoming, Idaho and into Oregon.

Discoverer II Satellite Due To Fall Earthward Tomorrow

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—Discoverer II, the satellite which made history by sending a space capsule back to earth, probably will die a fiery death sometime tomorrow, an Air Force spokesman said today.

The nearly 1,600-pound satellite was blasted aloft seven days ago into a polar orbit around the earth. Last Thursday, during Discoverer II's 17th pass over the polar regions, it automatically ejected a 160-pound space capsule.

The capsule has not been found, but the Air Force launched an aerial search for it over the vast polar waste last week.

Air Force spokesman said Discoverer II has gone into a less efficient orbit and was now circling the earth about every 89 to 90 minutes.

Although there was no official statement, it was believed the automatic ejection of the space capsule doomed the satellite to a premature death. Scientists predicted at launching time the baby moon would remain in orbit for about 30 days.

But the ejection of the capsule, which contained numerous instruments for measuring conditions in space, probably threw the satellite off its stable course.

Dead Prison Aide Honored

DEER LODGE, Mont. (UPI)—A simple, 20-minute memorial service was held yesterday for Deputy Warden Theodore Rothe, whose violent death touched off the bloody, 35-hour convict mutiny at Montana State Prison.

As this ranching community of 3,500 paid its final respects to the 40-year-old official, the bodies of his murderer and another leader of the unsuccessful escape attempt lay in pine boxes at the local mortuary.

Lee Smart, a 19-year-old convicted murderer, started the riot when he shot Rothe in the back Thursday afternoon. Early Saturday, he killed his accomplice, Jerry Myles, 44, and took his own life as national guardsmen stormed the prison.

Officials said Smart's body was claimed by his mother. The unclaimed body of Myles will be buried in the prison, where the convicts once held 19 hostages including Warden Floyd E. Powell.

Powell wept yesterday as Rev. Kenneth Schwengel eulogized Rothe as "a leader in one of the world's most difficult professions."

ALFRED N. STEELE Pepsi executive dies

Powell began a crackdown on the prisoners yesterday.

The convicts were restricted to their cells without mess hall or yard privileges. National guardsmen systematically searched each convict and every corner of the prison for concealed weapons.

"There is still quite a bit of tension among the convicts," the warden said. "We want to let them cool off for a while—but things are going to be real tight around here."

Actress Finds Husband Dead

NEW YORK (UPI)—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for Alfred N. Steele, 57, chief executive of the Pepsi-Cola Co. and husband of actress Joan Crawford.

Miss Crawford found Steele dead in his bed when she awoke yesterday morning in the couple's penthouse apartment.

The couple had just returned from a six-week business trip across the country and had planned to leave today for a 10-day vacation in Jamaica. A family spokesman said Steele had had no hint of illness and apparently suffered a heart attack in his sleep.

Miss Crawford eloped with Steele four years ago and put her own career into the background to accompany him on a nearly continuous round of business travels.

Steele joined the Pepsi-Cola Co. in 1949, when it had a net profit of $1,200,000 on $40,000,000 in sales, and built it to a 1958 profit of $11,500,000 on $136,000,000 in sales. He was chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the company at the time of his death.

Marin Women

Edith Jane Lunde Weds Robert Hodge

Edith Jane Lunde and Robert Anthony Hodge were married Sunday afternoon in 4 o'clock rites at the Swedenborgian Church in San Francisco, which were followed by a reception for 300 guests at the St. Francis Yacht Club.

The church was adorned with white flowers for the single ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Othmar Tobisch in the presence of relatives only.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Jane Lunde of Belvedere and Thomas Lunde of San Francisco, was given in marriage by her father.

Edie, as she is better known to friends, recited her vows in a short white silk dress fashioned with flared skirt and fitted bodice having a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. On her hair she wore a tulle cap trimmed with lilies of the valley, and her flowers were lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Karen McMullen of San Jose, her bridesmaid, wore a turquoise linen sheath and cap of matching tulle and carried a large bouquet of white daisies.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell Hodge of San Francisco, was his brother-in-law, Thomas Price of Belvedere.

The bride's brother, Dick

Lunde, and Miles Johnson of Palo Alto, showed guests to their seats.

Mrs. Lunde attended her daughter's wedding in a gray silk tweed suit and black Italian straw hat and wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a light weight black and blue print suit and matching blue hat. Her corsage was of blue Vanda orchids.

At the reception the bride's table was centered with the three tiered cake, adorned on top with lilies of the valley.

When the young couple left for a honeymoon at Carmel, the bride was wearing a biege tweed suit with coffee brown accessories.

On their return they will live in San Francisco.

The bride is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and the University of California, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. Since her graduation she has been employed by a trade publication in San Francisco.

Tony, as the bridegroom is better known, was graduated from Palo Alto High School and from Stanford University in the class of 1956. Theta Chi is his fraternity. He is employed by the Kaiser Aluminum Co. in Oakland.

Alumnae Plan Fashion Show On May 16

Celebration and festivities in Hawaiian style will be the theme this year for the annual Dominican College Alumnae Assn.'s Cocktail-Fashion Show to be held Saturday, May 16 from 4 to 7 o'clock. The setting for this night of fun and entertainment will be in the spacious gardens of Mrs. Robert O'Mara of San Rafael. The Ross Valley Shop of Kentfield will show the unusual in fashions ranging from formal to sportswear.

Mrs. John W. Rakow Jr., general chairman, has selected as her committee workers Mesdames Thomas Guerin, invitations; William Donohue, models; Walter Coyne, reservations; Roman Horak, props; Robert Fair, decorations; Pierre Powers, door; Vincent Sullivan and Edward Perez, refreshments; and Miss Edna Zuchelli, name tags.

The evening will be highlighted by a well-known Marinite, Andrew Swedlund, who will be commentator for the ten lovely models as they stroll through the gardens. And Mrs. Howard Hosmer will entertain the many guests with her authentic hula dance.

Griddle cakes are usually ready to be turned when bubbles appear over their surface and the edges look slightly drier than the center.

Sue Kern Of Corte Madera Queen Of Trophy Cotillion

For the fourth successive year the annual "Trophy Cotillion" was held at the Corte Madera Recreation Center, in Corte Madera.

Old Mill School Pupils See Film

"A Bit of Marin," a movie showing wild life in Marin County, was presented to Old Mill School children this week by S. Thompson Walker, director of the Junior Museum.

The color films taken by Walker showed many wild animals, birds and insects native to Marin in the woods, trees, flowers, mountains and seashores of the county.

Closeups provided the children with information hard to acquire even by the preserving nature lover.

Walker expressed the hope that learning about the wild life in the county would help children to respect and appreciate it.

Corte Madera Club Hat Luncheon Set

The long-heralded Hat Luncheon, the high point in the club calendar in the minds of many members and friends of Corte Madera Women's Club, will be held Wednesday, in the Recreation Center.

A convivial hour with the punch bowl set in the dining room begins at noon. The luncheon begins at 1 o'clock in order that members who wish to attend the last session of the Federation Convention in San Francisco may be home in time.

Many surprises have been made by garden section members who have been holding workshops in preparation for setting the long tables for an expected list of more than 100 guests.

Gledhill-Moody Rites Recited In Alameda

Robert Pierson Gledhill, son of the Richard Gledhills of Mill Valley, claimed Carole Deane Moody of Alameda as his bride Saturday at Christ Episcopal Church in Alameda.

White stock and gladioli were used to decorate the church for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Richard Millard in the presence of some 200 guests.

When the bride, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Moody of Alameda, was given in marriage by her father, she was wearing a floor-length gown of white miramist taffeta with chapel train. The fitted bodice have a scoop neckline and long sleeves and the skirt was bouffant. A coronet of seed pearls held her elbow-length veil of French illusion, and she carried a bouquet of amazon lilies and fleures d'amour.

Gowned identically in ice blue silk taffeta dresses designed on princess lines were her four attendants; her sister, Sharon Lee Moody, maid of honor; and Carol Graham, Joan Couture and Amanda Matthews, bridesmaids. On their hair they wore veils matching their dresses, and their flowers were crescent bouquets of white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was his only brother, Bruce Gledhill, and ushers were Lloyd Koster, Eugene Pepper and David Bohner.

The bride's mother wore an aqua raw silk sheath, white hat and white orchid corsage, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a royal blue chiffon sheath.

Following the ceremony a reception for all guests was held at the Officers' Club of the Alameda Naval Air Station.

When they return from a two weeks' wedding trip, the young couple will live in Alameda.

Both young people attended Stanford University, where the bridegroom graduated in 1956. Carol is employed by the Standard Oil Co. in San Francisco, and her husband is employed by the Kaiser Steel Company in Oakland.

Check Summer Camp Beforehand; It Could Mean Your Child's Life

Will your children go to camp this summer? I hope so, if their camp is a good one. But be careful. We still have many bad summer camps.

Check your camp carefully. Usually those run by the Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, YMCA or YWCA are good. Be wary of the makeshift camps run by untrained leaders. They can be deadly.

You'll read about the bad camps next summer. There'll be reports that children in them have been killed in preventable drownings or in unnecessary mountain climbing accidents. There'll be accounts of epidemics of food poisoning. And of a child or two who died unexpectedly at camp, from pneumonia. Such things happen every year.

Will your camp be led by a professionally trained person? Has he also had experience? You can't trust amateur camp leaders. Are the camp staff members responsible young people? Do they get any training? Will they be at camp to have fun? Or will they be there to help the kids assigned to them? Is there a swimming pool? If so, is there a high, childproof fence around it? Is the gate locked except while a lifeguard is on duty? Is the water filtered? Chlorinated? Between 30 and 50 children will die in poorly managed camp pools this summer.

Is medical care available when children get sick? A nurse on hand for first aid? Are the toilets and showers adequate? Can all the sanitation arrangements pass close inspection? Who plans the menus. Is food prepared in a clean, fly-proof kitchen? And served in approved ways?

Check your camp yourself. Make sure it is a safe, well led institution. Then you can send your children confidently.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) — "Schools must meet many legal requirements regarding safety, cleanliness, etc. Aren't camps regulated with the same care?"

—Mrs. F.D.

(A) — I'm sorry, but the answer is no. A great many camps fall far below the standards of our public schools.

Registration Set For Y Day Camp

Registration for the "vagabond day camp" program of the Marin Young Men's Christian Assn. will be held May 22 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and May 23 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., announced Erwin Farley, camp committee chairman. Registrations will be taken at the Y office at 1009 Irwin street, San Rafael.

The vagabond day camp program is planned for younger boys who are in the first through seventh grades or between the ages of 7 and 11. A crafts program, group sports and swimming instruction for both swimmers and non-swimmers are offered.

Four sessions will be held at the Fairfax camp site in Deer Park Canyon: June 22 to July 3; July 6 to 17; July 20 to 31, and Aug. 3 to 14.

Brad Bayless and Louis Albrecht, executive secretary and program secretary of the YMCA, will direct the day camp Unit director and craft specialist will be Walter Bajor, a teacher. Among the returning counselors will be Nat Johnson.

11 Dominican Girls Going To Mock UN

Drunk Driver Fined, Placed On Probation

Leroy Vincent Godfrey, 41, a San Rafael salesman living at Bermuda Palms, must pay a $200 fine and remain on 90 days' probation for his first drunken driving offense.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court sentenced him Friday. Godfrey may drive only for his work.

San Rafael police stopped him on Lincoln avenue last April 3.

'WALKING STATES' TEACH GEOGRAPHY

Pupils of teacher Dorothy Cloyd in the fifth grade of Hoffman School in Terra Linda have made "walking cutouts" of states to aid in their geography studies (a part of "social studies" under the California curriculum setup). Shown here pinning some of them on wall while teacher supervises are Ricky Laubscher and Linda Koski. The display will remain up for Public Schools Week, opening April 27.

Working Capital Rises

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Net working capital of U.S. corporations jumped a whopping $8,100,000,000 in 1958 as firms paid off debts and piled up cash and U.S. government securities.

The rise in assets and decline in liabilities boosted working capital to a record $119,800,000,000, the Securities and Exchange Commission said yesterday. Its figures excluded banks and insurance companies.

Russ Warn Norway

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia has warned Norway her decision to build new NATO munitions dumps and bomber bases on Norwegian soil is not "in the clear interests of peace."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko handed the Soviet protest note to Ambassador B. H. Gunderson. It complained particularly against the building of dumps for joint use with West Germany.

Malformed Babies Born

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—An unusually large number of malformed babies is being born in parts of upstate New York where radioactive rock is exposed in quantity, a state Health Department official has reported.

Dr. John Gentry of Syracuse, regional health director for the department, pinpointed areas in the northwestern and southwestern parts of the Adirondacks, in counties across the southern section and in parts of three counties in the Hudson River highlands near New York City.

In almost every instance, Dr. Gentry said, the high malformation rates resulted in townships with granite and shale of more than usual radioactivity or with glacial deposits in those rocks.

Reward For Nose Cone

OSLO, Norway (UPI)—A $500 reward was offered today to any civilian finding the container ejected from the Discoverer II satellite. The capsule is believed to have fallen in the Spitsbergen islands north of Norway.

The U.S. Embassy announced the reward, offered by the Lockheed Aircraft Co., makers of the Discoverer.

The search for the little container in the extensive arctic wastes of Spitsbergen and the surrounding sea and ice got under way last Friday. Nine American sea rescue planes and two Norwegian helicopters are taking part.

The major wet belt extended from the central Rockies eastward to the Atlantic Coast and southward into the lower Mississippi Valley. Thunderstorms, hail and strong winds hit Missouri and extreme northern Arkansas and headed into southern Illinois and western sections of Kentucky and Tennessee.

China to Melt Glaciers

TOKYO (UPI)—Communist China says that 3,000 scientists have begun a vast project to water farmlands in northwest China by melting enormous glaciers.

Peiping radio said men and airplanes will spread black materials, mostly coal dust and burned grass and wood, on the snowcapped Kilian Mountains in Kansu province.

The black will absorb the sun's rays, melting the snow and ice. Airplanes will bomb critical points on the glacier. In two months, the scientists expect to obtain enough water to irrigate more than 50,000 acres of potential farmland.

Airman Dozes Car Crashes Fence On 101

Sports car driver Warren Lee Case, 21, an airman at Hamilton Air Force Base, told California Highway Patrol officers he apparently dozed at the wheel yesterday on his way back to the base from watching sports car races in Sacramento.

He opened his eyes, he said, as his car jumped a curve and crashed into a chain link fence just north of the Alto overpass on Highway 101.

When the small car came to rest, six steel fence poles were bent over and a portion of the fence knocked over. Only minor damages were done to the car. No citation was issued.

Case is stationed with the 1902nd AACS Flight Service Section.

Young People Admirable In 3rd Concert

By MARTHA BRUCKNER

The Marin Youth Orchestra made its third public appearance this season Friday night with an animated performance at Marin Catholic High School in Greenbrae. Previous successful concerts had been in Novato and at Stanford University.

Conductor Hugo Rinaldi succeeded again in welding the 65 best musicians of 12 Marin County schools into one orchestral body which performed admirably for a youth orchestra.

Among its selections was the effective sonata for double brass choir by Gabrieli as the solemn opening. Another was "Phryne's Dance" from Faust by Gounod, which ended the concert in a zesty way surpassing all expectations.

Between these two, the orchestra, with Patrick Hurtado, Wendy Eisler and Rosemary von Bina as perfect solo flutists, enjoyably interpreted the "Penny Whistle Serenade" and "Sandpaper Ballet" by the American composer Leroy Anderson.

An excellent trio, alternating as a solo group with the full orchestra in Handel's Concerto Gross, Opus 6, were Tom Reynolds, Mary Franzman and Linda Salvisberg.

The three main soloists, chosen in the auditions of the Marin Symphony Guild for this program, have progressed considerably since Claudia Colburn, with her mellow contralto, rendered a stylish production of the "Habanera" from Carmen; Linda Salvisberg, a truly passionate performance of the "Allegro Appassionato" for cello by Saint-Saens; Rosemary von Bina, with a flawlessly played first movement of Chopin's Concerto in E Minor for piano and orchestra.

Altogether, the program was a perfect selection of what to offer at a youth concert. It had variety, imagination and appeal without being too popular, and it had quality without being too heavy.

Show To Feature Varied Flowers

The Stinson Beach wild flower show scheduled for May 2-3 may present flowers from several sections of the state. The show will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 2, and from noon to 5 p.m. May 3 at the community center. Proceeds will go into the community chapel fund.

Mrs. Edward E. Leary, secretary of the Stinson Beach Community Presbyterian Church, said an attempt is being made to offer a collection from as far south as Kern County to Mendocino County in the north.

A close second was a pigeon flown by Jack Tognetti. Third place won won by Del Krelle. The Junior Club race was won by a pigeon of Bill Krelle of San Anselmo, which averaged over 48 miles an hour. Craig Waller was second and Leith Lewin, third.

Weekly races for the next two months will be held by the two clubs, gradually increasing the course distance until the final race on June 27, when pigeons will be released from The Dales, Ore., 550 miles from Marin, and from Yakima, Wash., 600 miles distant.

Kelly was honored at a surprise breakfast yesterday morning at the Brick Lodge by city officials and men of the police department. The city presented Kelly a framed proclamation recognizing his 16 years as chief and citing the growth of the department under his direction.

Fellow officers gave him an engraved gold wrist watch. Among speakers were Mayor John F. McInnis and Councilmen Charles W. Aby, Fred E. Jensen and Louis H. Baar. Councilman Joseph F. Sauer stopped by to say hello but had to leave before the meeting.

The three best essays from each school have been selected and the winners will be honored soon at an assembly. The essays judged to be the best of two groups—those of fourth through sixth grades and those from seventh and eighth grade students—will be sent to the district contest for competition with five counties.

Judges were Mrs. William Fusselman, Peg McGinley, John Synon, Mrs. Paul Hammer, Robert Brown and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

RED CROSS CONTEST

Marin Girl's Art Work Going To S. Africa

Janet Laden of Larkspur is Marin winner of a Junior Red Cross competition to select an art exhibit to be shown in South Africa.

Winning entries in the competition, announced today by Mrs. Winifred Detsch of Mill Valley, county Junior Red Cross director, will be flown to South Africa for exhibit at the annual convention of the South African Red Cross.

Before making their trans-Atlantic flight, they will be shown at the American National Red Cross convention.

The Junior Red Cross in each state was asked to provide an exhibit for the South African convention featuring its state flower, explained Mrs. Detsch. The Marin chapter was chosen to provide the exhibit for California.

Janet, a Redwood High School student taking advanced painting under Wallace McDonald, was adjudged top winner among 77 entrants for her painting of the California poppy and accompanying account of the legend of its relationship to the state's history. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Laden of 116 Locust avenue, Larkspur.

Janet's entry and 24 others, representing five high schools, will be sent to South Africa, said Mrs. Detsch.

The other winners are: Redwood High School — Joyce Muller of Kentfield, 2nd; Phyllis Kerns of San Rafael, 3rd; Diana Elizabeth Eckersley of Kentfield, honorable mention.

Tamapais High School — Jeff Olson of Mill Valley, 1st; Lance Brackett of Marin City, 2nd; Barbara Andino of Mill Valley, 3rd; Dennis Reynolds of Mill Valley, honorable mention.

San Rafael High School — Betty Hastings, 1st; Vivian Berton, 2nd; Marcia Brookhaver, 3rd; Karen Erickson, honorable mention, all of San Rafael.

Novato High School — Virginia Alley, 1st; Gail Foster, 2nd; Sandy Lazzari, 3rd; Georgia Blackwell, honorable mention, all of Novato.

Judges were Helen Gaper Oehler, Lucienne Dimitroff, Nevin Kempthorne, Elizabeth Colton and Ray Strong, all artists living in Mill Valley.

TB Assn. To Hear Laboratory Chief

Dr. Bruno Gerstl, chief of laboratory services at Veterans Administration Hospital in Oakland and a longtime worker in the field of tuberculosis research, will be speaker at the annual meeting of the Marin County Tuberculosis Assn.

The meeting will be Thursday at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito, with a social hour at 6:30 p.m. Dinner is scheduled for 7:30.

New officers and directors will be elected. Reservations may be made by calling the association in San Rafael.

YOU HAVE TO KNOW HOW TO READ IT — Lt. Col. Mark J. Brown, commander of the 4th Weather Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, “briefs” Capt. Earl Kelley, airdrome officer, on the weather. Translation of symbols on chart (which can be read in any language) shows, from top: Hamilton AFB, 1,000-foot scattered clouds, 2,000-foot overcast; visibility 2½ miles; thundershower. Travis AFB, 3,000-foot broken clouds; 5,000-foot overcast; visibility three miles; thundershower; west wind, 15 knots to gusts of 20. Castle AFB, clear sky, visibility three miles; haze, smoke, winds calm; thundershower tops to 30,000. (Independent Journal photo)

Good Or Bad, Weather Keeps Men Of One Hamilton Unit Hopping

By BETSY M. WOODMAN
No matter how good the weather is, Detachment 5 of the 4th Weather Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base worries about it.
The detachment's concern is not so much just what the weather is or will be, but that the round-the-clock forecasts it makes will be accurate.
The detachment, whose primary mission is serving a fighter base, is not to be confused with the U.S. Weather Bureau. The Air Force unit is set up to serve the Air Force.
Technical aids for measuring and predicting the weather have improved in the past few years, as have methods of communicating weather conditions. The responsibility for accurate computations, however, falls on the technicians who read the gauges, make the observations, and analyze and interpret the data they collect.

SAFETY FACTOR
The base weatherman is acutely conscious that the safety of lives and extremely valuable equipment depends on his reports. In the event of a “scramble” (intercept mission) his timely professional advice must be given to aid pilots to return to base, refuel, rearm, and fly again.
Every pilot flying out of Hamilton must have a current weather briefing. Other West Coast units (including the Army's) which have no weather stations or lack personnel to give proper reports may receive weather clearance through Flight Service at the base. About 5,000 such inquiries are received monthly.

HOUR'S DURATION
A weather briefing is void an hour after it is given for flight clearance. When a take-off is delayed that long, a new briefing is necessary. Timing is a vital factor in giving a pilot the actual forecast for the time he arrives there.
The high speed of today's planes does not hamper weather predictions. The faster they fly, the more immediate—and sure—is the forecast.

Detachment 5 maintains a 24-hour shift. Except for the local observations, Hamilton weathermen make their computations from data piped in from several sources.
Weather Bureau information is transmitted by facsimile in the form of weather maps.
Other weather messages, gathered from all over the world, are sent as coded reports by teletype. This information is plotted on graphs.

WEATHER TRAINING
A combination of choice and aptitude, determined by tests given during an airman's basic training, governs his selection for the weather field. He first takes the 22-week observers' course at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill. If he graduates with an appropriate achievement level, he is sent to a weather station for on-the-job training. Later, when he passes a more advanced test, he becomes a fully qualified weather observer. He may continue in this position or apply for forecasting school, which requires a good mathematics foundation. After this 40-week course he graduates as an apprentice analyst. Following six months of job-training he must pass an even higher level test to become a fully qualified forecaster.

A weather officer's background must include a degree or substitute work in mathematics or physics. Often he has taken the university course of the forecasters' school and has an M.A. in meteorology. He will be completely qualified after a year of practical application in the field.
There is no difference between officers and enlisted personnel in the technical requirements of the analyst. Extra responsibility is given the officer in administrative areas.

SQUADRON CHIEF
Commander of the 4th Weather Squadron is Lt. Col. Mark J. Brown. He has a force of nearly 40 highly trained personnel to keep track of the weather.
The men will forecast for three days, but prefer to render a 24-36 hour advance report. Their accuracy rate for this augury is 90 per cent. An error is known as “busting a forecast.” When that occurs, the unit is sure to hear about it. It is rare, sweet music to have the constant good ones acknowledged by a returning pilot's “you sure hit it right on the nose.”

BIG PROBLEMS
The biggest problems besides rain on the local flying scene are fog, smoke and occasional low clouds. Fog is easy to forecast, but its dispersion is difficult. Its thickness hides the clouds and it is important to see the latter for they are the key to good forecasting.
Pilots often radio their observations back to the base. This helps in figuring when the fog will burn off. An aid to measuring cloud height is the ceilometer, which has an electronic eye. This measures, both day and night, the point at which the light intersects the clouds.
California's generally good flying weather can be a danger, too. Pilots become complacent and need to be reminded that the same conditions may not prevail at their destination in other states.
The weather man, like the weather itself, is usually cussed and discussed. When someone tries to hold him responsible for the weather with a querulous “Why don't you get rid of this dang rain?” Colonel Brown has a ready reply: “If I could stop it I wouldn't worry about my forecasting.”

Music Chest Drive Meets With Support

The first two weeks of the current Marin Music Chest subscription drive has received enthusiastic support, according to Mrs. George Metcalfe, county drive chairman.
The first two chairmen to exceed last year's figures in are Mrs. William Edwards, District 6, San Rafael and Mrs. Marian Rauschnabel, in charge of subscriptions at the College of Marin.
All chairmen are urged to bring completed books into county headquarters, 1133 Fourth street, San Rafael, today through Saturday so the concert ticket mailing list can be completed at the earliest date.

The drive will close May 6. The tea at which the complete picture of the drive will be given will be May 27 at the home of Miss Louise A. Boyd in San Rafael.
The summer concert season opens June 21 in Forest Meadows, San Rafael, with Luboshutz and Nemenoff, duo-pianists. Tickets also are available at First National Bank, Bank of America, San Rafael; American Trust, Bank of America, Hoy's, Kaufman's, San Anselmo; Dimitroff's, K. Myer Fabrics, Treasure Chest, Marin Music Center, Mill Valley; Opera-Symphony Box Office, Sherman Clay Co., San Francisco.

Five per cent of the money subscribed will be set aside for scholarships for talented young Marin County musicians. Auditions for scholarships will be held in August.
Young people may apply for audition blanks to Mrs. M. Oppenheimer, Box 468, Ross. Age limit is 14 to 24.

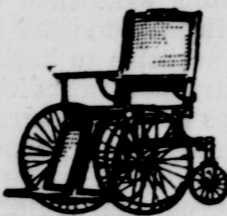

Discussion Set On Incorporation

The pros and cons of incorporation of Novato will be discussed at a meeting of the Forest Park Improvement Assn. at 7:30 p.m. today at the Lynwood School library.
Also to be discussed are participation in the Novato Western Weekend parade, preparation for the annual association picnic and festival in June and possibility of Greyhound bus service on South Novato boulevard.

School Board To Meet

A series of procedural changes for evaluation of professional training credits on teacher salary schedules is on the agenda of the Mill Valley School District trustees' meeting at the district office at 8 o'clock tonight. Trustees are also to discuss a rearrangement in the contract for guidance counselor Jack Danielson and a proposal to revise teaching contracts to a September-to-September basis starting with the 1962-63 school year.

Strawberry Play Program Planned

Cal Riemcke, College of Marin basketball coach, will again be director of the Strawberry summer recreation program.

Strawberry Recreation District directors Wednesday decided to operate the program from June 30 to Aug. 14 and named Riemcke director, according to Mrs. James W. Gowen, secretary.

This year's program will be open to all children within the limits of the Mill Valley School District, Mrs. Gowen said. The usual $1 registration fee will apply to all children participating and an additional fee, not yet set, will be charged children living outside the recreation district.

The program is held at the Strawberry Point School.

Recreation Meeting

Discussion of the Mill Valley summer recreation program, changes in the municipal golf clubhouse and complaints on the condition of tennis court surfacing are among items for tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission at 8 o'clock in the city hall, according to Chairman Charles P. Guichard.

Circulation Research On At Marin Hospital

A $1,500 research study of the circulation of blood in the legs and arms of patients who have been paralyzed is being conducted at Marin General Hospital with a grant from the Marin County Heart Assn.

Dr. Rutherford S. Gilfillan, director of the cardiovascular laboratory at the hospital, plans to carry out tests on 100 patients to study the variations of blood pressure between paralyzed limbs and normal limbs. He hopes to discover what medical or surgical measures can best restore good circulation.

Blood pressure in the arteries is partially determined by the comparative tightness or looseness of the tiny capillaries at the end of arterial branches, Dr. Gilfillan explained.

If the capillaries narrow, pressure builds up in the arteries. The size of the capillary tubing is determined by the sympathetic nervous system and by substances probably liberated from muscle.

In some cases of paralysis, blood pressure in the legs is seriously lowered. Physicians have found that by blocking off the sympathetic nervous system connections to the affected leg, circulation is improved. Heat and some drugs also have been found to raise blood pressure in paralyzed limbs.

The mechanism that causes changes of pressure in various parts of the body during diseases of the nerves or blood vessels is not well understood. The investigators at Marin General Hospital hope to shed more light on this mechanism by precise measurements of blood circulation at the ankles and toes of paralyzed legs, in contrast to blood pressure in other parts of the body.

Scout-O-Rama Set At Hamilton Field

This year's Scout-O-Rama on May 23 will be held at Hamilton Air Force Base, announced Walter Castro Jr., chairman. Marin Boy Scouts will begin ticket sales on May 1.

Proceeds will go to unit programs and to the countywide Scout program. More than 3,000 boys are expected to participate in the Scout-O-Rama.

Mountain Play 'Pied Piper' Set May 17

“The Pied Piper” will be presented by the Tamalpais Mountain Play Assn. at 2 p. m. May 17 in the mountain's natural amphitheater as the 46th annual Mountain Play.

It is the second time that “The Pied Piper” has been given by the company. It is being directed by Dan Totheroh, who was himself cast as the Piper in the original production in 1922.

One hundred actors will participate in the play next month, which traditionally is shown to family groups after picnic lunches nearby.

The whimsical drama by Josephine Preston Peabody has been adapted for the amphitheater stage by Totheroh.

Tickets for the play will be available at the theater the day of the production.
